

All-Farmington district final

It will be an all Farmington girls' basketball district final tonight at 7 when Farmington High (11-10) and Our Lady of Mercy (21-1) square off at Northville High School.

Suzanne Dietz scored 18 points to pace Mercy's 69-38 win over Walled Lake Western in district play Saturday night. Farmington, with Chris Looser scoring 19 points, eliminated Livonia Stevenson, 45-10, in another district thriller Saturday.

Mercy opened district play last Thursday with an easy 56-26 victory over host Northville. Farmington eliminated North Farmington, 55-25, later that night.

3-18 under first-year coach Greg Grodzicki.

CLASS B AT HARRISON

Suzanne Dietz, Mercy's outstanding 5-foot-11 senior, wasn't in the starting lineup against Northville. However, she came off the bench midway through the first quarter to score a game-high 14 points, including 10 in the second quarter when Mercy blew it open.

Teammate Karen Shook, who started at center in place of Kelly Fortescue, contributed nine points, and Carolyn Burt had seven. All 15 Mercy players saw action in the rout.

Jackie Nixon, a 5-6 junior guard, scored 12 points for coach Gene Wagner's Northville club, which closed out its season with a 6-15 record.

Farmington got 14 points from Stacy Green, and 10 more from Sue Carruthers in sidelining the Raiders.

Coach Bob Lekovich's Farmington squad had a solid lead at halftime, 27-18, and then put it away by scoring 13 third-quarter points to North Farmington's two.

Amy Austin, a 5-5 freshman who was elevated to the varsity for the districts, led the Raiders with nine points. Sue Barnes and Meg Henrich each added four points for North, which finished at Farmington Harrison, which won only two of its 18 regular-season games, shook off its losing ways Friday. The Hawks recorded a 57-53 overtime victory over Livonia Clarenceville in the state Class B district.

Two sophomores, Sue Ferguson and Lydia Gilvudis, paced the winners. Ferguson, the team's 5-7 center, led all scorers with 20 points to go with her 26 rebounds and six assists. The 5-11 Gilvudis, who was brought up from the reserves for the tournament, scored 12 points, including four in the OT.

The two teams battled to a 53-all deadlock after the regulation four quarters. Ferguson dropped in a short jumper with 17 seconds left to play to tie it. Clarenceville's Lisa Rose missed a chance to break the tie by missing a free throw with three seconds left. Harrison, coached by Mike Hickey, plays next on Monday, Nov. 24, against Livonia Ladywood at 8:45 p.m.

Novi, a 50-30 winner over Oak Park last Friday, plays South Lyon at 7 p.m. Monday. The winners of Monday's games meet for the district crown on Tuesday at 7 p.m.
