REGGIE UPSHAW leads the list of harrison (irst-camers. Upshaw, the leading vote-getter at offensive end, is a 6-foet-2, 175-pound major college prospect. He caught 27 passes for 702 yards and 11 touchdowns for coad-harrison's Ken Kopko, a 4.0 grade-point-average student, is one of three outstanding offensive hallbacks on the all-area team. He averaged 126.5 yards per game during the Hawks' 9-0 regular season. He finished the regular season with 1,266 total yards in 244 carries for a 5.18 average.

Kopko's teammate John Peset is a first-team offensive lineman. The Hawks' center was an outstanding blocker and the key to Harrison's rushing attack this year. Steve Sweeney is the fourth Harrison player to gain allierae honors. A junior, Sweeney is a good open-field tackler in the defensive backfield and he returned punts and livbodfs.

AUBURN HTS. AVONDALE, coached by Rick Brewer, did not qualify for post-scaon competition despite a perfect 9-0 record. Still, the Class By Ellowjackets landed two players on the first team — Marc Kuney and Greg Humphries. Offensive haltback Kuney, the MVP of the new North Oakland Athletic Conference, gained 1,137 yards this season — an Avondale school record. He also holds the Avondale career rushing record with 2,017 yards.

gaic career rusning record with 2,017 yards.

Humphries, a 6-4, 210-pound offensive tackle, is a blue-chip prospect. He had a 94 percent blocking average and was the leading pointgetter among offensive linemen. Avondale scored 26 touchdowns over his hole this season.

Steve Mazur, the leading votegetter among offensive backs, is one of two players selected from Bloomfield Hills Andover. Mazur was the area's leading rusher with 1,407 yards in 190 carries. The All-Southeastern Michigan Association selection scored 14 touchdowns and averaged 18.5 yards on kickoff returns.

JOHN HERRINGTON of Harrison is the 1980 Observer & Eccentric football coache-of-the-year. Playing against all Class A teams, Herrington led his Class B squad to a perfect 9-0 regular season and the state playoffs. The Western Six League champion Hawks defeated defending state champ Jackson Lumen Christi, 7-6, in the first round, before falling to Okemos, 14-3, in the semifinals.

THE ALL-AREA team in Oakland County includes schools from the Bir-mingham, Bloomfield, Southfield, West Bloomfield, Farmington, Troy and Ro-chester communities.
