Falcons 3rd in invitational

Mercy, North cop swim titles

By TOM BAER

Farmington Our Lady of Mercy's swimmers maintained a tradition in the Catholic League last Saturday. Coach DeLoris Yager's Marlins scored 439 points to win the league meet and championship — Mercy's 14th in a row — at Oakland University.

North Farmington is back on top of things in the Northwest Suburban League after a couple of seasons as runners-up. The Raiders, coached by Jordan Hatch, won the NSL meet, scoring 288 points.

Farmington Harrison closed out its regular season by scoring 193 points for a third-place finish in the four-team Western Six League.

Farmington High's conference, the Inter-Lakes League, doesn't offer swimming. The Falcons finished their regular season with a third-place finish in the Rochester High Invitational. Livonia Stevenson won the meet and West Bloomfield took second.

Mercy sophomore Kara McGrath established two conference records, going 58.8 in the preliminaries of the 100-yard butterfly (she won the fly with a 57.2) and posting a 2:12.4 in the 200-yard individual medley.

Sue Cashman was another double winner for Mercy. She took the 200 freestyle (1:56.9) and the 500 free (5:18.8). Sue's sister, Jennifer, swam a leg on Mercy's 400 free relay (with Pam Saunders, Beth Drotel and Jill Andries), which won with a record time of 3:47.2.

NORTH WON nine of the 11 events in the NSL meet, and three Raiders — Kirstan Kinsman, Katy Harnden and Mary Manderfield — each won two individual events.

Kinsman won the 200 IM (2:22.4) and the 500 free (5:29.2). Harnden won the 100 fly (1:03.4) and the 100 back (1:06.1) and Manderfield won the 50 free (26.0) and the 100 free (57.2).

North's Michele Lister won the 200 free (2:05.0) and swam a leg on the Raiders' 400 free relay, which won in 4:03.0. North's medley relay (Kirstan Kinsman, Mary Sherry, Harnden and Manderfield) won with a time of 2:00.1. Redford Union was a close second in the final standings with 276 points. Westland John Glenn had 213 points, and meet host Redford Thurston had 164.

Harrison's Nancy Whittemore finished third in the 200 free (2:07.4) and in the 100 fly (1:06.9) in the Western Six League meet in Livonia Churchill's pool. Helen Tucker of Harrison gained a fourth place in the 500 free with a time of 6:15.8.

Coach Ben Lauber's Northville team won the meet and league title with 384 points. Plymouth Canton was second with 291.

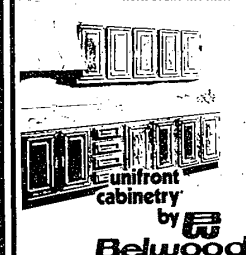

Farmington junior Kim Pogue was a stand-out in the Rochester Invitational. She finished first in the 200 free (2:00.7) and the 500 free (5:25.8) and then anchored the team's freestyle relay (with Jo Smith, Amy Edwards, Dawn Stanton), which logged a winning time of 3:49.7.
