

22 food boxes are donated by Chaldean Club

Two turkeys and 22 boxes of food-stuffs have been collected by the Southfield-Lathrup High School Chaldean Club for distribution to needy families in the city this Christmas.

The club has been donating Christmas baskets since 1975 under the direction of Kamal Eshaki, a teacher at Southfield-Lathrup.

Names of needy families are provided by the Southfield Human Resources Center and some of the goods are given to Duns Scotus Church for distribution.

Eshaki said this year's food drive is bigger than ever and thanks are in order.

"We'd like to thank especially the Chaldean parents for making this event take place," Eshaki said. "Without them we would not have it. All food is collected from Chaldean families and given to non-Chaldean families."

Artists Series begins with touch of romance

The American Artists Series will begin its 11th year Jan. 11 with a program of Romantic works by Beethoven, Mendelssohn and Gaura, performed by a chamber group of musicians of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

The season of six concerts runs through May 3, with concerts scheduled for Feb. 1, March 8 and 29 and April 12.

The scope of the series is wide and guest performers include international luminaries of the theater, Detroit Symphony Orchestra musicians and many of Michigan's fine concert artists.

This season's guests include actress Irene Worth, the prize-winning American String Quartet, and Tom Kneebone and Dinah Christie, stars of Stratford Festivals in a jazz review of songs and dances, "From Shakespeare to Sondheim."

Season tickets at $35 for six concerts are now on sale and may be obtained by calling 647-2220. Individual concert tickets are available on the day of the concert at $7.50 each when available. Concerts on Feb. 1 and March 8 are $10 each. Student tickets (with I.D.) are half-priced.

Artistic director and series founder, Joann Freeman, will make several appearances as concert pianist with the series.
