Royal Oak Dondero clips Athens, 53-36

A big Dondero second half was the difference Thursday as the Red Hawks lost, 53-36. Troy Athens is now 2-3 overall.

Athens actually had a two-point lead, 22-20, at the end of the first half.

But Dondero outscored the Red Hawks 33-14 in the second half.

Marty Hagen led Athens with 12 points. Jabron Yasso had 10. Jim Lama and George Heike had 16 points each for Dondero.

Athens is now 0-2 in the Metro Suburban Activities Association. The Red Hawks are idle over the Christmas break until Jan. 9 when they take on Bloomfield Hills Lusher.

CRANBROOK 66 LUTHERAN NORTH 47

The Cranes broke into the win column Thursday for the first time this year.

Scott Blohm and Tom Meissner were high for North with nine each.

Cranbrook is 1-4 overall, 1-0 in the Metro Conference. The Cranes have the Christmas break off. Their next game is on Jan. 9 at home against Detroit Country Day.

LATHRUP 75 GROVES 56

The Falcons put up a tussle Thursday, but Lathrup — especially Paul Bobbitt — was just too tough.

Bobbitt scored 34 points to lead the Chargers past Groves. He connected on 14 field goals and was six of eight from the line.

Groves was within five points, 36-31, at the half.

But Lathrup blew the Falcons off the court with 25 points in the third quarter.

Bobbitt's 34 points led all scorers. Teammate Sam Gun had 12, and brother Terry Bobbitt had 10.

Jeff Miller and Dave Dubensky paced the Falcons with 16 each.

Lathrup is 5-0 overall, 2-0 in the Metro Suburban Activities Association. Groves is 1-4 overall, 0-2 in the MSAA. Both teams are idle over the Christmas break.

The Groves javave team defeated Lathrup, 51-36.

RICE 61 STEVENSON 37

Terry Malone, a Farmington Hills resident, recently completed a successful season as a tight end on Holy Cross College's football team.

Malone, a football and basketball standout during his high school days at Detroit Catholic Central, was Holy a good Sterling Heights Stevenson team.

Paul Jokisch led the massacre with 21 points. Les Dags had 12 and Pier DaSanto had 10.

Ron Polus had 12 for the Titans. Rice is 4-0 overall. The Warriors host Grand Rapids Creston on Saturday.

OL ST. MARY'S 77 LUTHERAN WEST 67

One of these days St. Mary's is going to learn how to play defense.

Ed Okuniecki led the Eagles to their fifth consecutive victory with a career-high 34 points. He hit 14 of 18 attempts from the floor for a personal shooting average of 77 percent.

The Eagles shot 54 percent as a team, connecting on 31 of 56 shots.

Okuniecki wasn't the only player in double figures for St. Mary's. Hiram Harris chipped in with 22, and Phil Kienich 13.

Glen Slapley led Lutheran West with 22 points. Chris Howie had 13.

The Eagles had only a one-point lead, 20-19, at the end of the first quarter.

But they put the game away by outscoring the Leopards 18-12 in the second quarter and 18-15 in the third. St. Mary's is 5-0 overall. The Eagles are idle over the Christmas break.

ROMEO 76, AVONDALE 58

It was only the second loss this year for the young Yellowjackets.

Avondale, 3-2 overall, stayed close in the first half, and crept to within six points late in the game. The Bulldogs, however, erupted in the final moments to make it a runaway.

The loss failed to dampen first-year coach Chuck Granger's enthusiasm.

"They (Romeo) were a real good team, and it was a good experience for us," said Granger, whose team motto is "It's fun to run at Avondale."

"We just lost our composure a little at the end. We're young, and it showed in this game. Our intensity and youth has hurt us as much as it's helped us so far this year."

"But, I'm just ecstatic that we're 3-2 at this point in the season," he said. "The first five games, I think, we're the keys to our season, and we've come out pretty good."

Derek Woodmore led the Yellowjackets with 20 points, and teammate Jim Sherrill added 11.

Avondale will play in the four-team Christmas tournament at Clawson High School.

The Yellowjackets will play their first-round game 8 p.m. on Dec. 29 against the host Trojans, Oak Park and Oxford will also participate.

Here's how bowling leagues began

There will be no fanfare or blowing of trumpets, but this is the 39th anniversary of the inception of organized senior citizens bowling in the Detroit Area.

It all started on a Christmas morning at Livonia Lanes. Clarence Hoffman, then the co-owner, looked over the lanes and asked, "I wonder of the senior citizens up at their little home would enjoy watching these youngsters trying out their new bowling balls."

He didn't wait for an answer. He called and invited the senior citizens to the lanes.

Shortly after noon they came — about a dozen of them — and had a great time watching. Then, one by one, they tried it by rolling a ball down the lane. It was the start.

Within the next week they had several teams organized and within a month they had a league that eventually showed the way to a traveling league. And now the senior citizens leagues are an integral part of bowling.

THE HIGH scoring that has marked bowling in the Wonderland Classic dipped slightly during the past week as there were only two series above the 700 mark.

Jerry Bingham, with a 742, wound up being the leader and his big count was made possible by an opening game of 287, after which he came through with counts of 219 and 265.

The other was the work of Ken Brown who fashioned games of 243, 222 and 257 for 723.

CORA FEIBIG returned to her old form Wednesday night in the ladies major league at Beech Lanes.

Bowling with the Bonanza team, the former Bowling Queen turned a 258 for the night's high game and a 663 for the top series.

DAVE KAUPPI missed the 700 barrier by a mere four pins in the Pin Busters loop at Plaza Lanes — and he owes his misfortune to his opening game. He started with a 194, jumped to 252 and in the pocket

closed with 245 for his 696. His closest rivals were Tim Deherage who had a 638 and Dave Fisher with 633.

In the Hydromatic Circuit, Tim Gardella was high man with a 675 that came about when he closed with a 247.

Another close finish marked the competition in the Vinco League at Garden Lanes before Jerry Kundrat landed top place with a 674.

This gave him a five pin margin over Mike Graft with Ron Percha in third place with 655. And only six pins further back was Doug Webber with 649.

In the Ladies Classic, Mae Lackey showed the way with 623 and Sandy Berrington was next in line with 605.

IT ISN'T very often that there is a tie for top place in any of the classics in the area, but that is what happened in the Ladies Classic at Westland Bowl.

Marty Boron had a 224 in 619 and shared the lead with Carol Satula, who posted a 232 in her 619. Pat Russell followed this pair with a 286 in 602.
