Tragedy has struck again! The last week in January Alger and Beulah Clark left to drive to Florida for a winter vacation. Near Atlanta, Ga., they were in a very serious accident. Beulah died Tuesday afternoon.

Beulah's sister and daughter flew down immediately but were permitted to see Beulah but five minutes at a time as she was in intensive care. Young Alger also flew right down. Alger Sr. had a broken collarbone, ribs, and internal bleeding. After five days in the hospital he was released to return to his son's home in Bloomfield Hills. Beulah's body was brought to Hamilton's Bell Chapel in Birmingham, funeral services were Saturday with interment at Acacia Park Cemetery. We all wish to extend our deepest sympathy to Alger and to the families.

VI SMOLEK wishes me to express her great appreciation for the many expressions of interest in her recovery, and for the prayers and good wishes during her hospitalization and since her return home. Vi hopes everyone realizes how much this meant to her and to her family.

Young Jim Brown was due home Jan. 21 but came down with a mild case of hepatitis while still in Vietnam. He was shipped to Japan and telephoned his parents to say he was being taken to Walter Reed Hospital so would be delayed in getting home. Jim and Marilyn drove right down to Bethesda, Md.

After three days there, Jimmy was released for three weeks' convalescence at home. At the end of the three weeks he will return to Walter Reed and, if pronounced ok, he will have a 30-day leave before returning to active duty. Jimmy is feeling fine and is having a wonderful time visiting friends.

FRANK AND IDA JENSEN have had a vacation in Florida. A friend of theirs was glad to have them drive down with her and help with the driving.

They left the middle of January, had a good trip down, and spent two weeks in Florida before flying home. They visited in Fort Lauderdale and at Boynton Beach. They have friends at Boynton Beach with whom Frank went deep sea fishing. He caught a big grouper between 35 and 40 pounds - what a thrill!

Clark and Margaret Kruse flew to San Juan, Puerto Rico, Jan. 10 for the educational seminar run by Helene Curtis for beauty school owners. There were some 80 beauty school owners from all over the states. The Kruses own the State College of Beauty. The seminar lasted five days and then they went to Fort Lauderdale and had a very fine two weeks visiting with friends there.

Max O'Shaughnessy planned a nice vacation trip to visit friends in Phoenix, Ariz., Palm Springs, Calif., and Boulder, Colo. She flew out Jan. 20 to find weather unreasonably cold there as it has been over most of the country. She began to feel miserable so spent but one day in Boulder before flying home and getting to her doctor who pronounced she had a case of bronchial pneumonia.

FARMINGTON
Two Farmington youths were instrumental in helping city police make an arrest for possession of marijuana.

The pair said a man accosted them in the downtown Farmington Center and asked if they wished to purchase marijuana. Police said the youths came directly to the police department and told them of the incident.

Minutes later, Michale A. Jeske, 23, of 34561 Quaker Valley in Farmington, was arrested in the center.

Police said three packages of what appeared to be marijuana and one package of pills was found on Jeske.

Jeske was arraigned and bond set at $1,000.

Kendallwood Kommments

Mr. and Mrs. I. Scott of Quakertown Road are home after a 10-day vacation of skiing.

This year the folks drove to Chicago to meet their friends and then boarded a plane for Snowmass located in Aspen, Colo. The ski lifts were located outside the door and skiing was superb.

At the Brotherhood Tea last week in Orchard Methodist, at which the Women of St. Fabian were hostesses, the following churches were represented: Antioch Lutheran, First United Methodist Church, Trinity Presbyterian Church, Prince of Peace, Nardin Park and Trinity Episcopal. After tea, the group listened to Mrs. Marlo Belanger sing the "Our Father" and then the entire group listened to Judge Geraldine Ford speak on radio and her topic was brotherhood. Mrs. Belanger, who lives on Quail Hollow, appeared on television, Channel 9, on Feb. 6.

Marlo sings with the Madrigal Group of Detroit and the Kendallarks.

AT THE WOODDALE PTA meeting Feb. 3 the program was entitled "To Mother with Love" and the program was a follow-up: Parade of our Favorite Books; Bubble Bath & Hairbows (an animated book review); Wooddale String Ensemble, minute "Back" - "The Elephant Takes a Walk." A listening valentine, and the "Motoring Millers" reviewed by the school's librarian, Mrs. Hough.

Then the girls served their mothers coffee and goodies which were baked by the girls in the fifth and sixth grades. A true Valentine number. A true Valentine number. A true Valentine number.

While on Wooddale, the following is a must. During a discussion in Mrs. Palmer's fifth grade room, the subject of field trips came up and one youngster suggested "they get a bus and jet keep going to Florida."

"Not a bad idea," said Mrs. Palmer. "I had a bus and money. I would take you all."

At the Valentine Dance in Dunkel, Sue Reed was chosen "queen of hearts" while Don Taylor was selected "king of hearts."

More Wooddale news, this time on the bowling league which bowls in Farmington Lanes on Mondays. These girls donate at least $100 to the PTA each year. Leading the league is Team 4 and its members are Mesdames S. Kenworthy, P. Chapman, M. Berwick, and J. Foote. Marilyn Berwick has a 201 game for high single with Barbara Campbell leading the high three category with a 503.

A 1748 is tops in the team high three category, and its members are Mesdames M. Smith, S. Jardine, N. Henderson, and B. Campbell while a 538 team single belongs to Team 11 and they are J. Lymperis, J. Schoettley, J. Ketcham and M. Chickvira.

The folks at Old Orchard Methodist Church are sponsoring a barn dance and old-fashioned supper on Friday, Feb. 20 at 7 p.m. Call Gwen Ziegelbauer 474-9678 or Doris Sheffer 476-6555. Price is $3.50 per person.

Saturday is Valentine's Day so a happy day to all, especially to Philip Denaro son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Denaro who is celebrating his birthday today.

And speaking of birthdays.
