THURSTON 56 - HARRISON 50

Redford Thurston snapped Farmington Harrison's win string at four last Tuesday with a 56-50 showing. Harrison is 5-4 overall.

Thurston's Tim Fredericks led all scorers with 24 points. Bob Simon added 17. Steve Hollister scored 19 points for Harrison, and Goran Vasovsky had 12.

"Fredericks was the difference," said Harrison coach Mike Teachman. "He scored 20 points in the second half. Thurston is a good team. They're 8-2 and both losses were close."

Harrison plays next on Friday at home against Waterford Mott. The Western Six League game begins a 8 p.m.

Cross country ski races set

The Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Department and Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Michigan will sponsor a cross country ski race on Feb. 1, a Sunday, beginning at 11 a.m. at Glen Oaks Golf Course in Romeo.

The competition is one of six 1981 Cross Country Ski Circuit races to be held in January and February to promote physical fitness in the winter months.

Awards will go to the top three male and female finishers in each age division in both the novice and experienced categories. The seven age divisions range from 11-and-under to 40-and-over.

The average distance for the race is 10 kilometers for experienced skiers, and 4.8 kilometers for novice skiers.

Experienced skiers who compete in four or more races can qualify for Circuit Awards. Top prize is a trip to Toronto. Winners will be photographed in action for a slide presentation.

tion at an awards banquet on March 3 at the Troy Community Center.

Other races are scheduled for Feb. 8 at Faulkwood Golf Course in Howell, Feb. 15 at Whispering Willows Golf Course in Livonia, and Feb. 22 at Redford Golf Course in Detroit.

A special cross country race and snow festival for handicapped persons is scheduled for Jan. 24 at Oughlun Farm in Troy.

Entry forms are available at the Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Department, 31555 11 Mile Road, or by mail by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Michigan, Community Relations No. 1908, 600 E. Lafayette, Detroit 48226.

Registration fee is $3 for entries postmarked by Jan. 28, and $4 for entries received after that. All entrants receive free refreshments and an embroidered race patch.

Additional information may be obtained by calling 225-0211.

A Beautiful Place to Live

The Farmington Hills Inn
A Supervised Residential Care Community in Farmington Hills

The Farmington Hills Inn's handsomely-decorated, roomy semi-private residences are on a single level that is structured to blend comfort with convenience and security.

Its design offers the elderly who need assistance, but don't want a nursing home environment, a home of their own in a setting that brings the everyday necessities and conveniences to them.

Its chalet-like architecture features wood-beamed ceilings, plush carpeting, traditional furnishings and spacious surroundings. It is completely air conditioned and fireproof.

Laundry and housekeeping services are provided. Activity programs for virtually every interest are offered. Professional medical attention always is readily available.

A lovely dining room served by a kitchen which provides for all dietary needs... activity rooms... beautifully landscaped courtyards... a barber-beauty shop... a multi-denominational chapel... all are within The Farmington Hills Inn Community.

The Farmington Hills Inn is located in a fine residential neighborhood near two large shopping centers. Thanks to the immediacy of the I-696 Expressway, it is just a brief drive from virtually anywhere in the western metropolitan area.
