CHILD BIRTH WITHOUT PAIN Education Association will sponsor two movie showings of the birth of a baby demonstrating the Lamaze-Pavlov (psychoprophylactic) method of painless childbirth.

The film will be shown at 8 p.m. to-night in Grace Northwest Hospital auditorium, 18709 Meyers, and at 8 p.m.

Tuesday, March 10, in Berkley High School cafeteria, on Catalpa and Coolidge.

Admission is $1 asked at the door. Only adults will be admitted.

The group's fifth biennial conference runs from April 9-11 in McGregor Memorial Conference Center, Wayne State University.

U-U church sets China series

Universalist-Unitarian Church of Farmington begins a two-part series on China at the 10 a.m. Sunday worship service.

On March 8 Betty Doran, a member of Detroit Institute of Arts' Speakers Bureau, will give a slide presentation.

The series continues on March 22 when Fran and Harold Gibson head up a slide travel log they made from their trip to the Orient last year.

Members of the church on Halstead, north of Grand River, have been doing their own ministering and using guest speakers for Sunday services since Rev. David Pheasant left the congregation.

Interim minister is Erwin Gaede, a retired minister from Ann Arbor.

Complete brochures and registration forms for the conference, called "The Childbearing Years: Controversies and Alternatives" will be mailed by writing to Renee Maljak, conference registrar, 28134 Glenwood, St. Clair Shores, 48081.

THE OAKLAND SINGLES meet for a party at 8 p.m. Sunday, March 8, in Angies, 30806 Orchard Lake Road. Singles who live in Oakland County between 23-39 years of age are invited.
