

IT'S OVER!

Our Red Wing Hockey ticket promotion is over and before we pack it up and head for sunnier climes, we'd like to thank everyone who entered and congratulate our more than 600 winners.

We received nearly 3,000 postcards from hopeful hockey fans and would like to have mailed as many tickets. But take heart! When hockey season rolls arounds next year, we'll be back.

Until then, watch the classified ads — not for your name — but for all the inflation-fighting bargains and other good stuff your friends and neighbors have to advertise.
