

Musicale members perform in concert

Farmington Musicale members pool their talents for a concert at 8 p.m. Friday, April 10, in William Tyndale College, 35700 12 Mile Road.

The concert is the final fund-raiser of the season to support music scholarships that are available to students in grades 7-12 who attend Farmington public or parochial schools.

Appearing in the concert are Barbara Grover, oboist, Kim Doelker, flute, Eleanor Peets, piano, Jill Locke, organ, and vocalists Joyce Bigelow, Astra Kainins and Vena Roberts.

They will be backed up by The Musicale Chorus.

Tickets are $5 each and are available by calling 661-4604.

The musicale also donates annually to Farmington Community Band, Oakway Symphony, Detroit Symphony, Farmington Community Center and Farmington Communities Libraries.

Play director gets arts grant

Sally Sawyer, director in residence of Family Players of West Bloomfield, was awarded a grant from the Michigan Council for the Arts under the Creative Artist category.

Forty of 192 applicants reportedly received grants.

Mrs. Sawyer requested the grant to work her prize-winning play "How the Penguin got his Tuxedo" into a musical. The play took first prize at the Community Theater Association of Michigan competition several years ago.

Performances are planned for the latter part of June in Plymouth and Sidney, Michigan.
