

INSIDE ANGLES

VIETNAM VETERANS night, designed to honor Vietnam vets living in this area, is planned next Thursday, April 23, at the American Legion Northwest Post 190, Nine Mile at Middlebelt.

The meeting will be programmed to answer questions vets have regarding veterans' benefits or special programs.

The open house will be at 8 p.m. Refreshments will be served.

Commander Art Nevill invites all vets to honor those who served in Vietnam.

REGISTRATION FOR SPRING classes at the Farmington YMCA opens today. Members can register from 6 to 7:30 p.m., non-members from 8 to 9:30 p.m.

After today, registration is at the front desk from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. Classes begin the week of April 27. The YMCA is at 28100 Farmington Road. Call 553-4020 for more.

COUPLES ANTICIPATING the birth of a baby within the next five to six months should enroll for classes in the Lamaze Method of Prepared Childbirth.

The classes are being conducted at the Farmington Parks and Recreation Department, beginning April 30, by Professional Associates in Childbirth Education.

The seven-week class, taught by a registered nurse, prepares the couple emotionally and physically for the birth. More information is available by calling 425-3750.

LOCAL TAXES and the changes that would come if the state tax proposal passes May 19 is the subject of a special meeting scheduled Tuesday, April 14, at 7:30 p.m. at Farmington City Hall.

Mayor William Hartcock and City Tax Assessor John Sailer are scheduled to attend the information meeting sponsored by the Chatham Hills Homeowners Association.

KUDOS TO WMU students from the Farmington area who made the dean's list for the fall semester at Western Michigan University.

Among the students so honored were Douglas Freedman, Susan Wayne, Vera Ellen Brown, Bonnie Prochaska, Steve Grabowski, Gaye Lackey, Thomas Bremer, Charles Dierkes and Mary Smith.

Also on the list are Lynn Arabian, Joanne Cromwell, Nancy Gottschalk, Debra Gregory, Cori Hane-Caplan, Ann Knauer, Mary Koltz and Irwin Pukoff.

NOMINATIONS ARE STILL being accepted for the annual Farmington area Artist in Residence award, which is sponsored by the Farmington area Arts Commission with support from the Michigan Council for the Arts.

The award designed to recognize the talents and accomplishments of a person who lives or works in the Farmington or Farmington Hills community.

Nominees can be active in the fields of art, dance, drama, literature or music.

The winner will be announced at a June 7 reception at the Farmington Community Center and will receive a cash award of $500.

Nominations may also be made for service awards to persons or organizations who have contributed significantly to the arts. For more information, call the Farmington Community Center at 477-8404.

EASTER BUNNY is the star attraction at an Easter Egg Hunt sponsored by the Farmington Area Jaycees and Jayettes on Saturday, April 18, at 9 a.m. at city park, Power and Shawwassee.

Free candy, comic books, balloons and eggs are available for children as long as supplies last. Parents are encouraged to bring cameras.

FRANK VAUGHN has been named Republican youth chairman of the Farmington Hills area for the 17th District.

Vaughn worked on the Reagan campaign, the Republican National Convention last summer, and has experience working as a political consultant for the Reagan-Bush campaign and the Victory '80 campaign.
