

Salesman wins award for 3rd straight year

Dennis J. Jones of Farmington Hills, of the national division office of Lawyers Title Insurance Corp., has achieved national distinction for the third straight year by winning the company's 1978 Distinguished Sales Award Program and naming of Jones as the Troy national division winner in the same program in 1979.

Capture of the award for outstanding sales effort in 1980 followed special recognition in the company's 1978 Distinguished Sales Award Program and naming of Jones as the Troy national division winner in the same program in 1979.

Citizens group plans meeting

The Citizens for More Responsible Government will have its annual meeting at 7 p.m. on April 30 in the Farmington Hills Library on 12 Mile between Orchard Lake and Farmington roads.

All persons from Farmington and Farmington Hills are invited.

Ferency: Nation is polarized

City problems, identified in the Kerner Report which covered the 1967 and 1968 riots in Watts, Newark and Detroit, have not gone away. Instead, they have increased, according to a Michigan State University professor of criminal justice.

The nation is now further polarized into two societies and manifests further disintegration between the one society which is "powerful, affluent, urban and white," and the other which is "urban, poor, minority and older," said Zolton Ferency.
