

HAROLD JULIAN, alternate 19th District de legate from Farmington, depressed about reactions from the road the rest of Michigan of the the point of the state of th hursus was attending the convention as an observer, was picked up by National Guard troops at the corner of Michigan Ave. and Eighth St., at 9:15 p.m., while walking with a group of delegates and staff toward the amphitheatre.

The charge, on which a num-er of other arrests was made, was refusing to disperse when ordered to do so by a law enforcement officer. Meyer was released on $250 bond for a later trial date.

unnecessary increase by the police against the students and demonstrators," explained with the police against the students and demonstrators," explained with the police against the students and the police against the students of the police against the students of the police against the students of the application of the police against the students of the police against the students of the studen

Dems' Viet Plank Not So Bad,

Full Platform Good--Vagnozzi

number of factors. Before the committee ever imet, there was new that their e would be a minority report."
He said that Richard Goodman, a top adde to Senator Eugene McCarthy, was holding press conferences outside, the committee room trying to get his man's version of the plank adopted.
The committee worsed under the gun of actions by President The committee worsed under the gun of action by President Johnson, who he effect spelled out the views he wanted expressed in the national platform. "It was portrayed as a hawkish platform," Vagnozzi said. "It wasn't and isn't. The two planks, the pne accepted and the other one, aren't that far apart."

ANOTHER committee problem was the eighblishment of a confitting powerment in South Vietnam. The committee was 3-1 against an immediate bombing halt and 2 1/2 - 1 against a coaliting operarment.

"But anytime's you have presidential politics in it, you have a decision based on issues other than the platform," Vagplank.

"I FELT RIGHT from the a decision based on issues other beginning that there were a er than the platform," Vag-nozzi said.

"Actually, I think there is enough leeway in the plank to bring about a bombling half, and the plank to bring about a bombling half, and the plank to bring about a bombling half, and the plank to the

THE MICHIGAN delegation voted for the minority--stop the bombing--by a poll of 52-44. Vagnozzi figures the minority report might have helped Vagnozzi figures the minority report might have helped flumphrey.

"It would have given Humphrey running room away from others of the state of the s

PAUL LIVINGSTON, West Bloomfield Township, and Wayne County Prosegutor William Cahalan watch the proceedings, Livingston is a Democratic candidate for the Odkland County Board of Sypervisors from

Three Sleepy Ladies

One Star Was 'A Cold Fish'

BY MARGARET HALAVA

BY MARGARE I FALAVA

CHICAGO — Since femaly representation on the list of local delegates and alternates to this convention was limited to one—Rebecca Woods of Pontace—this—Seserver went to the wives of the delegates and alternates in order to carry out an assignment from the boss: "Find-out what the women are doing."

I cornered the gals at the

are doing."

I cornered the gals at the breakfast table.

They were bright-eyed and raring to go, although they had managed to get only three or four hours of sleep. Wearing various official badges, Humphrey, McCarthy, McCowarth, Kennedy and Frink campaign buttons they were full of funny buttons they were full of funny penings of the day.

FORMER MADONNA College teacher of speech and Spanish, Rosina Raymond, is the wife of Livenia Councilinan Jerry Raymond, who is a deligeate from Wayne plub/District. Rosina will teach spanish and produces in control of the con alternate Paul Kadishof Livonia who is presently serving as campaign manager for 19th District congressional candidate Gaty Frink, in her own right, Estelle is vice-chairman of Wayne 19th Democratic Women's Committee, is active in all 19th District Democratic affairs and is mother of three experiences, impressions and serious thoughts on the happendings of the day.

FORMER MADONNA College
teacher of speech and Spantsh, Rosina Raymend, is the wide
for Livotal Councilman Jerry Raymend, who is a delegate from Wayne 19th Joistrict. Rosina will teach Spanish and practical partialegentary procedures in Livotal's adultdeuction prograff this fall, is trueser. This SE walls loand.

nuscano is Conce Damus, alternate from Redford Township.

THESE THREE gals Joined about 2,000 wy times in a tribute reception for Mr. S. Murightiumphrey Monday i titeron in the Palmer House.

The Palmer House
the year amous rede that stree
the YP was unavor i abily detailed by "flirting with delegates," they were to have a surprise guest. Jimmy Dur ante -- IN person. He delights i them with his inimitable "yo t've Gotta start Off Each Day. With A Song" and "takadhira, doo."

Estelle Kadthe, sho ok hands
with Jimmy, but the gold star goes to Betty Deamid, who was standing in back of a woman whom Jimmy Dura by embraced. His face was within nose-to-nose distance from Betty's and he aimed a tifying
kiss at her, but she ci alique
kis at her, but she ci alique
kiss at her, but she ci alique
kiss at her, but she ci alique
kis at her bat she alique
kis at her bat she alique
kis at he

with direct contact.

The gals' reaction to Mur 'lel
Humphrey ranged from Este lle
Kadish's "exceptionally gracloust" to Betty Deamud's
"Mrs. Humphrey is a beautiful woman-very attractive-gorgous stluery hair."

expressed her gratitude to the little Japanese girl who presented her a nosegay," said Rosina Raymond, "The flowers were from the group of deat and dumb girls who interchanged with an interpretative danged with an interpretative concerning the grand-daughter," Vicky Solomonson, who was born with the afflication."

ALL THREE said that Betty Furness turned her smile off and on, depending on whether or not she was on camera. "A snob," said Estelle Ka-dish,

dish.
"Cold like a fish," continued

dish.
"Cold like a fish," continued Betty Deamud,
They agreed that perhaps she had had too much exposure, opening and closing all those Westisphouse Stringerator Eagle-peed Stelele Kadish spotted all the famous faces on the floor of the convention for the pothers last night, she pointed dul Paul Newman whom she called "pretty man" - Clonel John Glenn and his wife -- Joanne Woodward, seated in the Georgia telegation Arthur Miller, play wright, pushing for McCarthy -- and haddsome, funny, Dick Vafing Rubbing elbows with the handsome, numy, Dick van-byke, Rubbing elbows with the 'beautiful people,'' exchanging political rumors and ''In'' in-formation with the Maine state delegates residing in this hotel, sight-seeing, shopping.

That's what the women are a district that includes northern Farmington Township. SAVE NOW ON BAGGED DECORATIVE STONE, MARBLE CHIPS, FOUNTAINS, PICNIC TABLES, R.R. TIES, FERTILIZER,

BAGGED DECORATIVE STONE 50 LB SALT & PEPPER st. 79 $1.49 MARBLE (45 Ton) Reg. $1.29 JADE GREEN Seg. 52.39

KYOTO STONE 809 51.49 LEISURE LAWN Reg. $1.99

BOULDERS (Unusual Selection) All Sizes, Shapes, Colors 20% OFF!

FOUNTAINS AND ORNAMENTAL CONCRETE
ORNAMENTAL CONCRETE PRODUCTS 25% OFF!

R.R. TIES (seconds) Assorted $1.00 to $3.50 NEW TIES 4"x4"x8 Ft. Reg. $2.00 $1.75

5 ft. | 6 ft. | 8 ft. 15. | 18: | 23.

FERTILIZER (Everything God 10-6-4 $1.89 20-10-5 $1.99

PATIO BLOCKS 5 for $1.00

BRICK for Edging or Paties ssorted Colors 12 for $1.00

Fast deliver in the Livonia area . . . call KE 1-1733 Open Mon. - Sat. 8 a.m. 'til dark; Sun. & Holidays 9 a.m. 'til dark 27700 WEST SEVEN MILE ROAD . LIVONIA like movie stars to a camera. From left: State Chairman Sander Levin, 15th District Rep. William Ford, State Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley. Boisterous, No, Exhausted, Yes! CHICAGO — The long, grim ride back to the hotel from, the amphtheatre at 4 a.m. Tuesday on a crowded bus full of mentally and hopyically exhausted tolegates and alternates was bad enough. Added to it was hunger—the concessions at the hall ran out of food softwhere around 130 a.m. the public may think of fun-loving and drinking conventioners, But Observerland oblegates, alternates and their spouses fell into bed to catch a few hours sleep before repeating the rotine of the business of the day.

At 7:30 a.m. the telephone rang in Livonia delegate Jerry Raymond's rown.

Raymond's wite, Rosina, pleked up the phone and was greeted with "If's a boy, grandma!"

Raymond's "Wife, itosima, piecen up the phote and was greeted with 'I'les a boy grandmail'.

The bearer of birth tidings on the other end of the pirmen was Jerry and Rosina's son-liaw Dr. Edward Hell of Birmingham, Their daughter, Rhea, had presented the Raymonds their eighth grandchild!

A great way to start out the second day of convention, proceedings. way to start out the second day of convention.

CHICAGO -- Democrats have always nurtured a tradition of contestion and a sort of revision for chaos which against mount of the contestion and a sort of revision for chaos which against mount of the contestion and a sort of revision for chaos which against mount of the contestion to learn the condetti into the air conditions. Every four years they throw condetti into the air conditioner, and it comes out wallpaper. It's impossible to describe this frenetic status quo without resorting to absurdities, whatever it is was preserved with dedication at the Democratic National Convention.

CANDDATES ARE supposed to get into section to contemplate the lichy whimsies of the get into section to contemplate the lichy whimsies of the get into the contemplate the lichy whimsies of the get into the proposition of the sent the service of two cameras to record two cameras to record