Loan Reduces Campaign Cost

By SUE SHAUGHNESSY
It's time to eat humble pie. Or maybe it's best to say that I just don't understand the complexities of accounting.
At issue is the story appearing in last Sunday's Enterprise & Observer that the Committee to Make It Judge Oppenheimer spent a total of $5,257 in the primary campaign for district judge.
The committee spent $3,257.
What happened was the fact that a $2,000 loan was reported on the disbursement report.
Feminine logic concludes that the $2,000 was money spent and should be added to the total.
However, accountants don't use feminine logic. The legal form requires all receipts and disbursements to be shown — even a loan. But a loan that is repaid is not really money spent.
Thus, the true cost of the campaign is really $3,257, not $5,257.

UM Sets Courses At N. F'ton

Registration for graduate education and psychology classes from the University of Michigan will begin at North Farmington High School, Sept. 9.
Additional classes in education, English, geography, psychology, social work, and real estate will be offered in Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, Ferndale, Pontiac, Royal Oak, Southfield, and Dearborn.
Except for the real estate courses, all classes carry graduate extension credit for qualified students, and many may be elected for undergraduate extension credit.
Fees are $30 per credit hour for graduates, $27 per credit hour for undergraduates, and $60 for each real estate course.

Attend Meeting

A Farmington couple recently attended the Twentieth National Convention of Kory Distributors in Anaheim, Calif.
Mr. and Mrs. John Laskie of 2409 Colchester, were among the more than 325 persons at the five-day convention.
Detroit, with 1,620,000 people, is the nation's third largest city. Wayne, now at 2,772,000, is the fourth largest county.
According to a recent national magazine survey, average tax on a $20,000 Detroit home is $388, slightly less than a national average of $390.
