

INSIDE ANGLES

PING PONG ENTHUSIASTS, pick up your paddles and head for the Orchard Ridge campus of Oakland Community College, June 13, site of the AAU/Junior Olympic Table Tennis Tournament.

The competition is open to boys and girls across the state 17 years of age and under. The Detroit Table Tennis Club is sponsoring the event.

Junior Olympic medals for first, second and third place will be awarded in singles and doubles events. All award winners in the singles category and first place winners in doubles will be eligible to participate in the National AAU/Junior Olympic Table Tennis Tournament in Oklahoma City July 30 through Aug. 2.

For more information, call tournament director Louis Budi at 553-9569 after 6 p.m.

POMP AND CIRCUMSTANCE will fill the air at Farmington High School at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, June 20, when the Farmington Public Schools adult graduation takes place.

Twenty-six adults will be presented with their diplomas in the first adult graduation conducted in the traditional manner, complete with caps and gowns in an auditorium setting.

Congratulations to the graduates.

SPEAKING OF DIPLOMAS, Don Hadley of Farmington says congratulations are in order for his wife, Bonnie Rae, who graduates from OCC tomorrow with a 4-point average.

Mrs. Hadley, mother of 6- and 11-year-old daughters, won an academic scholarship to Eastern Michigan University where she is going to major in early childhood special education.

A part-time student, Mrs. Hadley completed the program in four years at OCC.

KAREN MORRIS, the Farmington Hills youngster who just gave up her title of Little Miss Michigan this spring, was second runner-up in a state competition for the title of Sophisticated Model. The competition was staged by the North American Pageant System in Willow Run.

CIVIC STARS, the second annual competition sponsored by the Association for Retarded Citizens of Oakland County, will be at 2 p.m. Sunday, June 14, at the Birmingham Ice Arena, 2300 E. Lincoln.

TV personality Vic Caputo will be master of ceremonies. Oakland County civic organizations will compete in a variety of amusing relay style games. Tickets will be available at the door for a $1 donation and ticket holders will be eligible for a cash drawing of $10, $25 or $50.

The Birmingham Stars Hat Band will provide music, and clowns will distribute free balloons. Events include a water balloon race, ping pong ball on a spoon, an obstacle course, a scooter race, broom hockey and a dressing relay. Prizes will be awarded for each event.
