

Garden clubbers mark 50th year

Peg Moore takes over the presidency of Farmington Garden Club as it marks its 50th year in working to make Farmington beautiful.

The club's work can be seen in city parks, libraries, and the Farmington Community Center. It has produced members skilled in conservation and flower arranging and they in turn have shared that skill with area youth.

Mrs. Moore has been a member of the club for 14 years and has held numerous offices during those years.

Her vice president, installed this month, is Barbara Denton, a second generation garden clubber.

The two preside over committees at work now leading up to two anniversary events — a garden tour and a flower show.

The Garden Tour, subtitled "A Tour Through Some of the Hidden Beauty of Farmington," will be from 1 to 5 p.m. Saturday, July 18.

Seven gardens will be open for touring, each selected because of its uniqueness in landscaping design, or species of plants or motif. The range runs from country charm to modern sophistication. It includes an English garden and a Japanese garden.

TICKETS ARE now on sale at $3 each. The tickets include a map and description of each garden on the tour and can be obtained by calling Sue Phillips, 851-4560, or Jessie Lind, 476-4474.

Those buying a ticket on the day of the tour will be charged $3.50.

The Gold Flower Show, named and staged in observance of the club's anniversary, will be held next spring.

The club has won many awards over the years for its flower shows. The experience has produced, within the club, several National Council Accredited Flower School judges and one landscape design appraiser.

Sonny Eliot roasted at Camp Fire benefit

Fire Detroit Area Council stages its "Roast and Sa-

Sonny Eliot will sit in the hot seat when Camp fire" Friday, June 19, in Sharon Southfield.

The fund-raiser begins at 11:30 a.m. to send both boys and girls from Detroit to camp this summer.

Doing the roasting of the WJMK weathercaster will be Jim Brandstetter from Channel 4, Rod Burton of Burton Advertising, former Tiger Norm Cash, Fran Harris from WWJ radio, sportscaster Charlie West, columnist Bob Talbert and columnist Pete Waldmeir.

Eliot has been making Detroiters smile about the weather for the past 25 years. His witty reports have been named the nation's best by National Association of TV Program Executives.

He began his career after serving as a B-24 pilot during World War II. Even then he brought smiles with the original skits and reviews he staged during the time he spent at Stalag Luft 1 as a prisoner of war.

Tickets are $25 per person, and tables of 10 may be reserved. Reservations, which include luncheon, are taken by calling the Camp Fire office, 835-2670.
