Weissman takes 1st prize in Palette and Brush show

Corrine Weissman has taken the first prize in the Palette & Brush Club's joint show that opens Saturday, June 27, in Pontiac Creative Art Center, 47 Williams.

Mrs. Weissman, who was Farmington Artists Club's featured "Artist of the Month" last June, took the top award with her work called "Grandmother's Tablecloth."

Second prize went to portrait artist Jerinne Habsburg, a Farmington Hills resident who teaches in Farmington Community Center, for "Kim With Begonia."

Third prize was given to Rose Grzywnski from St. Claire Shores. Monica Leaning from Farmington Hills, and Audrey DiMarco, a Livonia resident who is a member of Farmington Artists Club, both received honorable mentions.

The show opens with a reception from 1-3 p.m. Saturday, June 27, and remains in the center through Sunday, July 11.

Juror for the show was Robert Wilbert, head of the painting department and professor of art and art history at Wayne State University.

In making selection for prize winners, Wilbert said he was seeking an artist who would be willing to "take risks or chances," and paintings that had "authentic freedom."

Art in the work are watercolors, acrylics, oil on canvas, collage, mixed media and sculpture.

Ready to teach home nursing, first aid, parenting, child care, water safety, CPR.

Red Cross: Ready for a new century.
