

Rutz-Hammel

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Rutz of Farmington announce the engagement of their daughter Tamara Lynn to Lawrence Joseph Hammel.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Oakland Community College and is employed as a medical assistant. Her fiancé is a student at Macomb Community College.

An August wedding is planned in Prince of Peace Lutheran Church in Farmington Hills.

Juza-Virgin

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Juza of Inverness, Ill., announce the engagement of their daughter Mary Jo to Kenneth A. Virgin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth R. Virgin of Farmington Hills.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of North Farmington High School and Western Michigan University where she earned a degree in marketing. Her fiancé is a graduate of North Farmington High School and Western Michigan University where he received a degree in advertising. He is employed with Kmart Corp.

An October wedding is planned in St. Fabian Catholic Church.

Rogers-Pretty

Deborah Marie Pretty and Gary Robert Rogers were married by Dr. Bartlett Hess in Ward Presbyterian Church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pretty of Novi, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rogers of Farmington.

The bride was clad in a white chiffon gown trimmed with silk brocade applique and chantilly lace. She carried a nosegay of white dried and silk flowers. She was attended by her sister Renee Pretty, Rocio Donado, Karen Haegeland, Patti Walker and Joyce Rogers.

Brad Rogers served as his brother's best man with groomsmen Rick Pretty, Dan Lochrie, Todd Culross and Mike Rogers.

The bride has been a student at Taylor University, Schoolcraft College and Eastern Michigan University. She will attend Spring Arbor College in the fall. The groom is a graduate of Michigan State University, employed on a Michigan farm as a dairy herdsman.

The couple received guests in Knox Hall in the church before leaving on a Caribbean cruise. They will make their home in Homer, Mich.

New officers for guild

Cancer decline

Uterine cancer mortality has declined 70 percent in the last 40 years, due to early detection with use of the Pap test. This is a painless procedure which takes only minutes to do. All women over 18 should have regular Pap tests.

If you have questions about cancer, call the toll-free public response line of the Michigan Cancer Foundation, 1-800-462-9191.
