Allstate opens new office in Hills

Allstate Insurance Company is opening a new sales office at 32732 Northwestern Highway, Farmington Hills. Allstate, a subsidiary of Sears, Roebuck and Company, is the second largest property and casualty insurer in the United States. It is also the 13th largest writer of personal life insurance in the country.

The new sales facility will offer life, auto, homeowners, and health insurance, as well as commercial business insurance and auto financing. The company has recently introduced a new package of life insurance products designed to increase protection at lower rates. Allstate policyholders can pay their bills at the new neighborhood office at any time no matter where their agents are located.

Agents serving the new office are Jim Jackson, Dick Harrick, Jim Miller and Tom McEvans.

The office will be open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Saturday 9 a.m. to 12 noon. The phone number for the new office will be (313) 354-9550.

Participants contend for Toronto trip

Coppertone sponsored the first Annual Flying Disc Fair to benefit the American Cancer Society on Saturday, July 25. It was conducted as part of the Farmington Founders Festival and was held at Oakland Community College, Orchard Ridge Campus from 2 p.m. until 8 p.m.

Participants could enter in three events: Distance, accuracy and golf disc throws. Craig Carlton, Royal Oak, won first-place trophies for two events: longest distance (293 ft.) and best golf score (15 points on a 21 point course). Mike McClintock, Farmington, received the first-place trophy.
