Fashion Investment: The Camel Hair Suit. A Sensible Business Proposition.

In some professions between the hours of 9 to 5, conservative, classic clothing is the best choice...especially if you're the kind of businesswoman whose day usually ends somewhere around 8. In this case, it's best to rely upon classic, traditional clothes that fit into the business world rather than standing out and apart. Dalton delivers just that kind of smart business sense—refined, polished and proper. It begins with a smooth blend of camel-colored wool and camel hair. The collarless, open-front jacket has cord stitching 'round the shoulders and every softly curved edge. The skirt is gently gathered at the waist with more cord stitching 'round the waistband and down the side. And the buff-colored blouse with pintucks and bow is in carefree polyester crepe de Chine. Sensible suiting like this, in the long-run, makes for a sound business investment. The jacket, $165; the skirt, $95; and blouse, $57. All for sizes 8 to 18. In Collection Sportswear—where we are all the things you are!
