Adapt the script to suit yourself

WHETHER you're "Dancin'," "Singing in the Rain," or making "Promises, Promises" this fall, be sure you are tuned to the season's newest styles.

While everyone can't purchase new wardrobes, scene-stealing accessories are within everyone's reach. When shopping for fall '81, fashion coordinators give several handy hints that can help spruce up an outfit and make it look new rather than old hat.

In accessories, ornamentation is the key word. Burnished bronze, pewter and gunmetal will get star billing, especially when teamed with leathers. Shoes, boots, belts, purses and even hair combs all will boast the ornamental pairings.

Shoes in olive or loden green, in cinnamon or burgundy leather with added metallic texture, sometimes woven together, all with low heels set the pace for fall dressing. Daytime heels

Chunky necklace and belt will turn any wardrobe around. Here an art-wear copper disc necklace can double as a belt and be worn with this leather jacket. The medieval carved belt is another addition that screams fall 1981. From Linda Dresner.
