

Appointed choir director

John A. Smith was recently appointed musical director and conductor of the Rackham Symphony Choir. He is a member of the Kenneth Jewell Choral and tenor soloist at Kirk in the Hills, Bloomfield Hills. In his new appointment, he succeeds Phillip T. Jenkins, who left Detroit to become executive director of the Settlement Music School, Philadelphia. Rackham Choir draws its members from the tri-county area.

Teens invited to pageant

Southfield teens may enter the Metro-Detroit Miss National Teen-Ager Pageant, a preliminary to state competition. The competition is scheduled for the Plymouth Hilton Inn in Plymouth on Nov. 26-27. Awards offered to winners include an all-expense paid weekend to compete in the 1982 state pageant, a $200 cash prize, a $4,000 college scholarship to Eckerd College in Florida, trophies and others. All contestants will be nominated to "Who's Who Among American High School Students" and qualify for $51,000 in scholarships. Contestants will be judged on scholastic achievement, leadership, poise, personality and appearance. There is no swimsuit competition. The winner of the Metro-Detroit Pageant will be eligible to compete for cash prizes and scholarships as well as modeling courses and other awards. Contestants must be 13 to 18 years of age as of Aug. 15, 1982. Interested teens should contact the state directors, Mr. and Mrs. G.P. Scarborough, at PO Box 2838, Pensacola, Fla. 32503 or call 904-432-0069.

Institute offers adult classes

The Waldorf Institute in Southfield offers adult evening classes in painting, clay, doll making, singing, movement, nutrition and other areas this fall. The classes are drawn from the work of Rudolph Steiner, an Austrian philosopher who applied his creative vision to the arts, education, medicine and other fields. Classes are geared to bring out the creativity of individual students. Registration will begin on the week of Sept. 9. For information or a catalog, call 352-8990.
