Grace opens birth unit

A new family birthing unit is now open at Grace Hospital, Meyers and Seven Mile, Detroit. It offers low-risk mothers a safe alternative to the traditional setting for labor and delivery. The unit provides a very home-like setting for the mother-to-be, her family members and other relatives while awaiting the birth of the baby," said Dahlia Pesselschick, RN, assistant director of nursing of obstetrics. "It has the advantages of a large hospital if complications arise." In addition to the birthing bed, a couch, color television, stereo, stuffed toys, refrigerator, bath facilities and rocking chairs are available. A wooden cradle is also on hand. For more details, call the unit at 927-3246.
