

Deadline nears

Time to sign up for winter classes

The Ten Mile Community School has launched another season of classes with some new choices and old favorites. Among the new offerings are Personal Typing for Teens, Pompos, Your Aging Parent, Art Criticism, and Tailoring.

Classes will begin the week of Jan. 18. Individuals may register either by mail or in person at the Ten Mile School, 32789 10 Mile, Farmington 48024.

Registration is from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. or from 7-9 p.m., Monday through Thursday. Fees are payable at the time of registration. Mail registrants should plan on attending the class at the first meeting. No further notification will be given.

Refunds will be granted when classes are cancelled. All other requests must be made to the Community Education Office before the second-class meeting. A $2 registration fee will be deducted in the case of withdrawal.

Persons 60 years and older are eligible for one free registration except in limited enrollment classes. Identification from the school must be obtained prior to registration.

Following is a list of the day classes, their times and tuition. A list of evening classes will appear in the Thursday Farmington Observer.

Classes are eight weeks unless otherwise indicated.
