HILL AND DALE GARDEN CLUB meets at 8 p.m. tonight in Farmington Hills Branch Library for a workshop in landscaping, dish gardens and terrariums.

The program will be led by Greta Tipping, a member of Hill and Dale and a 30-year member of Ontario Horticulture Society.

Members netted about $2,600 from "A Christmas Package," a fund-raiser in early December. Proceeds will be used for the garden-therapy classes members offer for all persons in special-education classes in Farmington and Farmington Hills.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF RETIRED PERSONS, Farmington Hills Chapter 2083, meets at 1:30 p.m. Friday in Farmington Hills Branch Library on 12 Mile Road.

Program is "Handwriting on the Wall," a film on vandalism and the resulting damage to property and quality of life.

Membership in the club is open to all persons over the age of 55 whether retired or not. Membership inquiries are taken by Henry Houseman, 555-1173.

ALZHEIMER'S DISEASE AND RELATED DISORDERS ASSOCIATION, Detroit Chapter, hosts an open meeting at 2 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 17, in the auditorium of the Veterans' Administration Hospital in Allen Park.

Program, called "Legal and Financial Issues," is a discussion about the legal and financial concerns of those taking care of one with Alzheimer's disease or any other senile dementia.

It is open to all concerned persons without charge. The hospital is located on Outer Drive, at the Southfield expressway.

Heading up the program are Edgar Howbert, of the Detroit law firm Dick-

Smokers' risk

Seventy percent of all men and women who developed lung cancer were smokers. Smoking also is associated closely with cancer of the lip, larynx, esophagus and mouth. When you have questions or concerns about cancer, call the Public Response Program at the Michigan Cancer Foundation. Call toll-free, 1-800-462-9191.

erson, Wright, Moon, Van Dusen and Freeman; Gordon Wright of Manufacturers National Bank; and Matthew Abel, community development specialist in Senator Carl Levin's Detroit office.

The Detroit Area Chapter of the association now reaches about 1,000 family members and professionals in a five-county area. It assists and informs patients' families in many ways.

Alzheimer's is a progressive, irreversible disease for which there is no known cause or cure. It is characterized by loss of memory, disorientation and diminishing intellectual capabilities. It is often mistaken as senility, hardening of the arteries or chronic organic brain syndrome.

Inquirers will be taken by Sarah Glover, 333-2795, or Nancy Lombardo, 646-2582, residents of West Bloomfield who founded the Detroit chapter.
