

News show debuts

Senior Correspondent Bill Bonds (right) is anchoring the "Action News 5 pm," a new hour-long news program on Detroit's WXYZ-TV, Channel 7. Bonds is a West Bloomfield Township resident. Sportscaster Dave Dile (left) of Southfield is a regular on the show. Replacing the 5:30 p.m. "Action News," the new program also features co-anchor Diana Lewis and weatherman Rob Kress.

Lathrup woman wins contest

Mrs. Sidney Milstone of Lathrup Village is the winner of an "I Ought to Be in Pictures" contest conducted by Metropolitan Repertory Company. The announcement was made by producers Eric Jones and Robert Casemore. Along with her husband, Mrs. Milstone will be a guest of Win Schuler's Dinner Theatre, Ann Arbor, now featuring Metrop's production of Neil Simon's comedy hit "I Ought to Be in Pictures." Mrs. Milstone is a substitute teacher in the Southfield public schools and the mother of three children.

In her winning entry she wrote, "I ought to be in pictures because anyone who has to rescue three gerbils loose in the family room and retrieve one pound of spaghetti floating on the kitchen floor deserves recognition."

Her son is named in the Guinness Book of Records as having owned the world's oldest gerbil. That gerbil, now deceased, is stuffed and on display at the Lathrup Village City Hall. The gerbil story was recently told in the news columns of The Observer & Eccentric.

Solo competition hosted by Oakway Symphony

Oakway Symphony Orchestra will hold its 1981-82 Young Artists Solo Competition on Saturday-Sunday at Madonna College's Activities Building in Livonia. To date, 38 young artists will perform beginning at 9:30 a.m. each day before three nationally known judges. The judges are Arno Marritt, on the faculty of the University of Michigan School of Music, former first oboist with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra; Felix Resnick, violinist, DSO, who is conductor of several suburban symphonies including West Bloomfield; and James Tambourini, area conductor, who teaches at the University of Windsor, former first trumpet with the DSO. The public may attend the competition without charge. In all, $3,000 will be awarded for four scholarships with funding provided by the Michigan Foundation for the Arts. First prize will be $7,000, said Francesco Di Biasi, Oakway's conductor. Second and third prizes are $750 each, with the fourth prize totaling $500. In case of a tie for fourth prize, the money will be divided. Competition scheduling deadline was Jan. 4 and limited to instrumentalists this year. Piano and voice competition will be held in 1982-83. Performers, to be eligible, must be residents or students in the Southeastern Michigan counties of Livingston, Macomb, Monroe, Oakland, St. Clair, Washtenaw or Wayne. AMONG FEATURED instruments this year will be the euphonium and harp. A percussion solo also is included. Winners of the Young Artists Competition will be featured soloists at the 3 p.m. Feb. 14 concert of the Oakway Symphony at Madonna College. Operations of the Oakway Symphony are partially made possible with the support of the State of Michigan through a grant from the Michigan Council for the Arts.

Guide available to Super Bowl

A free Super Bowl souvenir guide is available from the Southeast Michigan Travel and Tourist Association. The guide originally was a four-page informational article published as part of the association's "Winterfun in Southeast Michigan" booklet. Major events surrounding the Super Bowl — the Super Bowl, Super Bowl and Super Week Winterfest — are featured in the guide. Dates, location and times of these events are outlined. A brief history recounting the efforts expended to bring the Super Bowl to Southeast Michigan is highlighted, as well as the plans to provide 70,000 visitors with Michigan hospitality. Color NFI photos illustrate the guide. Copies of the brochure can be obtained by calling the association at 585-8220 or writing to PO Box 1590, Troy 48069-1590.
