North's Sharon Shifra tied for second on the uneven parallel bars to help the Raiders beat Troy Tuesday.

Troy, bus breakdown can't stop North girls

Sitting in a cold bus for two hours certainly is no way to celebrate a victory, but that's what the North Farmington gymnasts had to do Tuesday night.

The Raiders, who narrowly defeated Troy, 126-69-125-65, experienced bus problems three miles outside of Troy on the return trip.

Nevertheless, the gymnasts escaped unscathed in both the bus incident and the gymnastics meet.

The Raiders' victory helped wipe out memories of last week's upset loss to Birmingham Seaholm and prevented the losing streak from surpassing one game.

Last Thursday, the Raiders lost their first dual meet of the season, a 129-55-129-00 setback from Birmingham Seaholm. But Tuesday, it was a different story.

NORTH FARMINGTON trailed, 63.0-62.95 after the uneven parallel bars competition, but took a first and third on the balance beam and second and third on the floor exercise to help clinch the victory.

North Farmington's Sharon Shifra finished in a tie for second with Troy's Michele Sirna on the bars, and placed second on the floor (8.35) and third on the vault (8.2). Teammate Dona Kebrle was first on the beam (8.5) and third on the floor (8.25). Kim Edwards was third on the bars (7.5).

Kathy Michaels led Troy, with a first on the vault (8.95), a first on the bars (8.85) and a first on the floor (8.0). Michaels also placed second on the beam with an 8.45 score.

Sirna was second for Troy on the vault (8.9) and the bars (8.1).

Both teams are 5-1 on the season.

Monday, Troy is at Warren Lincoln for a 7 p.m. meet. Tonight, North Farmington is at Farmington.

Harrison swimmers sink

West Bloomfield stayed on the winning track Tuesday as the Lakertankers scored a 123-46 victory over Farmington Harrison.

The win upped West Bloomfield's record to 6-2-1.

Terry McGinnis took first place in the 200 individual medley (2:09.3) and the 100 butterfly (57.1).

The Lakertankers' two relay teams placed first. Todd Rachel, Dave Mapley, Mark Wittenberg and Brian Hudema touched first in the medley relay (1:59.4) and Bill Hartwell, Scott Simmons, Tim Liu and Hudema won the 400 freestyle relay (3:45.2).

Ted Rudel was a double-winner for Harrison, as he won the 200 freestyle (1:51.4) and the 500 freestyle (5:10.2).

On Feb. 11, West Bloomfield is home to Rochester, while Harrison travels to Bedford Thuston.

its 11th win without a loss Saturday as the Maples swimmers defeated Grosse Pointe South, 108-64, in non-league action.

The Maples won eight of 11 events, and were paced by the double-winning performance of Scott Christie, who won the 200 freestyle (1:48.1) and the 500 freestyle (4:52.08). Christie also joined forces with Manuel Bartush, Jeff Lundy and Al Kovach to win the 400 freestyle relay in 3:18.7.

Lundy set a six-year-old Seaholm pool record with a 54.2 clocking in the 100 butterfly, and teamed with Mark Kitzman, Keith Gardiner, and Mike Hanahan to win the 200 medley relay in 1:43.35.

Other Seaholm winners included: Bartush in the 200 individual medley (2:02.9), John McEwen in diving (227.25), and Gardiner in the 100 breaststroke (1:34.2).

Thursday, the Maples will put their undefeated record on the line with a 7 p.m. home meet against Bloomfield Hills Andover.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS LAHSER won six events against Royal Oak Kimball Tuesday night, and improved its record to 5-3 with a 96-75 victory.

Mike Kowalski was a winner in the 50 freestyle (22.2) and the 100 backstroke (56.0), and joined Lee Anderson, Karl Zimmermann and Eric Nordlund with a winning 1:44.7 time in the 200 medley relay.

Nordlund won the 100 freestyle (50.6), Mike Kubicki topped the diving competition (231.6) and Craig Johnson was a winner in the 500 freestyle (5:27.6).

Thursday, the Knight swimmers travel to Southfield-Lathrup for a 7 p.m. meet.
