New boundries must be drawn every 10 years to reflect the latest census figures. Oakland County grew by more than 100,000 persons during the 1970s as people moved to the north and west areas of the county. The southeast section's population declined somewhat. Hematologist to be speaker in Southfield

Dr. Voravif Ratanatharathorn, head of the hematologic oncology department at Harper-Grace Hospital, will be speaker for the meeting of the Michigan Hodgkins Disease Foundation at 745 p.m. Monday, Feb. 8, in the Provience Hospital Medical Budding on Nine Mile in Southfield.

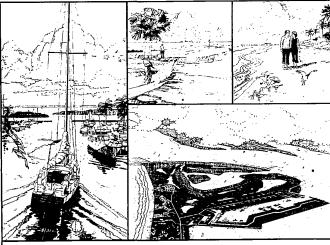

He will discuss management of the disease. The foundation invites Hodg-kins patients and their families and all others interested to its sessions.
