shlike

Freshlike

Vegetable Sale

Libraries rev up for Valentine's Day MR. TILE

ALL CURRENT ALL 151 QUALITY WALLPAPER UPTO 55% OFF 180 Books No Handling Charges Sale ends #eb. 27, 1982 t.

Ceramic Tile

No Wax Tile

Sheet Vinyl

UNDER THE WATER Twelve Oaks

348-8850 Redford Store 9300 Telegraph 255-1134

Mr. Tile

We Beat All Deals

Hardwood

Floors Largest Selection in Michigan

Basement Tile

By Denies Moll special writer 's
This month the Farmington Community Library will be featuring a variety of new programs and services, if you haven't yet visited one of our branches, the would be a good time to do so.
The major event of the month, our annual Valentine Family Story Hour, will be held Wednesday, Feb. 17, 747, and Thursday, Feb. 18, 748, and puppet shows that will be enjoyed by all ages, Because of limited seating, we ask that you REVY by calling the Farmington Hills Library at 47 at 535-530.
Other program will feature songs, and the Farmington Hills Library at 47 at 555-530.
Other program cature showings of the hilm "The Hobbit" during mid-winter break. Screenings are scheduled for Tuesday, Feb. 23, at the Farmington Hills Branch, and Thursday, Feb. 25, at the Farmington Library. Both programs will rug 2-345 p.m. Saturday matiness for elementary-school children will feature "Brighty of the Grand Canyon" on Feb. 5, 2-3:30 p.m. and science-fiction films on Feb. 20, 2-3 p.m. at the Farmington Branch, and "Mr. Magoo — Rip Van Winkle," followed by original poetry readings by Vicki Teichner on Feb. 27, 2-3 p.m. as the Farmington Hill Library, films for school-agers include "Wind in the Willows," "Wilbur's Story," and "Swiss Family Robinson" on Feb. 13, 2-3 p.m. Por preschoolers, February features a pfranct-dodler open program to 130-11. an orgam in project. At the Farmington Branch, "E is for Elephant" will be presented Friday, Feb. 12, 10:30-11 a.m.; bring a paper bag to make your own elephant. And on Tuesday Feb. 22. 30 pm., the films' Lepold the Section of Computer and Mode and the Farmington Library at 474-7770, or Laureen Bowman at the Farmington Enter the Bedtime Story Hours to be held at the Bedtime Story Hours to be held at the Farmington Branch on Feb. 22 and March 4, 7-730 p.m. Designed for ages 3-5, the essexions will offer stories, songs and films. Please reserve your meet store the second series of children's programs begins Friday, Feb. 19. These programs are a repeat of the limited enrollment story and activity classes offered in February, and all regular registration registration registration for the special stories. Young adult Adventure Gamers continue to meet at the Farmington Branch on alternate Thursday evenings. If you're an experienced gamer looking for some competition, or a distential to the following for some competition, or a most offer "Precious Metals and Security and the proposition of the proposition of the following for some competition, or a most offer the presentation for "Images." the Young Adult Media program to be held at the Farmington Branch, will begin show and will learn how to operate audiovisual equipment. Registration side to the proposition of th hours at a time. If you are interested, contact Denise Moll at 474-7770 or Karen White at 553-0300.

library line

Other upcoming changes will include new machine-readable library cards, computerized reference services, and/a collection of VIRS videocassette tapes available from the Farmington Hills Library. We hope to have most of these available by the fall, but many of the changes will be ongoing. Come in and see what we're up to.

Awards program under way

The Scholarship Commission of the United Hebrew Schools (UHS) and Woman's Auxiliary announces the opening of its 1982 award program. Brochures containing an application, outlining the awards program and listing the requirements for such awards, will be sent to eligible UHS students' shortly.

will be sent to eligible URS students' shortly.

These awards may be used during the summer for study at Klar Ivrt, the, therew speaking unit at Camp Maas, Ortonville, or at another approved Hebrew speaking camp.

Thirty-six such awards were made uring 1981. The deadline for applications for 1982 awards is April 1. For applications, interested URS students' should contact their principal or call the high school Midrasha office at 352-7117.

ADRAY

CARLYSLE ... NEAR OUTER DRIVE &

OPEN DAILY 10 A.M.-9 P.M. - NEVER ON SUNDAY - PLENTY OF FREE PAVED PARKING