

club circuit

HILL AND DALE GARDEN CLUB meets at 8 p.m. tonight in Farmington Hills Branch Library for a program called "Doing It Our Way."

Four members of the club, Pat Camp, Nancy Goulette, Joan Granning and Jean Leich, will speak about table settings.

Meanwhile, plans for the group's annual garden-plant sale are being finalized. Orders for flowering plants, hanging baskets and tomatoes are being taken now, with delivery date set for May 20. Deadline to order is May 1. Order blanks are available by calling Deedee Swan, 553-7240, or Beth Callow, 476-9034.

The club welcomes in its new members on March 16, and its Garden Study Course is set to go March 17-18 in Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church.

MOONDUSTERS, a club for singles who are over the age of 40, meet every Saturday from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. for a dance party in Activities Center, 15218 Farmington Road, at Five Mile Road, in Livonia.

The dance parties are open to residents in all surrounding areas who are single and over 40. A live band furnishes music for dancing. Men are asked to wear jackets and ties; women are asked to dress in good taste. Admission of $3.50 is asked at the door.

DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION, (DAR) Quakertown Chapter, meet at noon Tuesday, March 16, in Farmington Hills Branch Library.

Speaker for the day is Rae Choma, owner and operator of Drover's East Antiques, who will introduce DAR members to "The Wonderful World of Antique Dolls."

Doll collection is now said to be America's third-most popular investment hobby, exceeded by stamps and coin collecting. With those who collect dolls, the antique and original production dolls are the most choice and desirable.

Mrs. Choma most recently received national recognition by election as a zone director for National Association of Dealers in Antiques, Inc.

Many of the dolls in her large personal collection are prize winners in doll-show competition. She is believed to have the most complete collection of Bye-lo dolls in the Midwest.

She will bring some of that collection to the DAR meeting, and she has invited members to bring their own dolls for identification and evaluation.

WOMEN OF NORTH FARMINGTON will tour Marillac Hall on Tuesday, March 16. The residence provides housing for single, pregnant women, where they can receive prenatal care and continue with their schooling.

The club annually gives money to support the home, on Inkster Road, north of 12 Mile Road.

Following the 11 a.m. tour, club members will lunch in The Vineyards.

Persons interested in joining club members for the day may call Irene Karpinski, 553-0485, for a reservation.

FARMINGTON AREA JAYCETTES invite all former members to attend the monthly dinner meeting at 7 p.m. Tuesday, March 16, in Farmington Community Center on Farmington Road, north of 10 Mile Road.

The group will give a review of the past 24 years of the Jaycettes in the Farmington area.

Reservations are requested by calling Mary Pills, 661-4774.

FARMINGTON GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY meets at 7:45 p.m. Tuesday, March 16, in Farmington Branch Library, 23550 Liberty Street.

Speaker for the evening is Betty Guzak. Her topic is "Pathways to Print."

Guests are invited to this meeting.

XI EPSILON BETA CHAPTER of Beta Sigma Phi meets Tuesday, March 16, in the home of Judy Johnson. Persons wishing membership information are invited to call the chapter president, Dorothy Bose, at 626-3556.

JUNIOR GARDENERS continue a three-month project of creating ceramic wind chimes at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday, March 16, in the home of their leader, Sandy Doyton. Instructions for the afternoon are Betty Hahn and Penny Stairs, members of Hill and Dale Garden Club, which is the juniors' parent club.

The juniors have concentrated on helping the handicapped and the elderly this year. They have now completed making clay pots which will hold house plants and be delivered to residents in Oak Hill Nursing Home in April.

ST. EDITH'S WIDOW AND WIDOWER social group meets at 8 p.m. Wednesday, March 17, in Church of St. Edith hall, 15089 Newburgh Road, Livonia, for a St. Patrick's Day Dance.

Admission of $4 will be asked at the door. The event is open to widows and widowers between the ages of 35-60 only.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS, West Bloomfield-Farmington Branch, meets at 10 a.m. Wednesday, March 17, in Farmington Hills Branch Library, 32757 12 Mile Road.

Anita Herman will talk about the social, psychological and economic aspects of aging in a program called "A Forum on Senior Citizens Concerns."

Ms. Herman is outreach coordinator of Farmington Hills Senior Adult Program and a Madonna College gerontology instructor.

This meeting is open to guests at no charge. Free baby sitting is available by reservation only through Sue Wills, 553-3672.

NEWCOMERS AND WOMEN'S CLUB OF WEST BLOOMFIELD meet for lunch at 11:30 a.m. Wednesday, March 24, in Jacques, 30100 Telegraph Road, Birmingham. Reservations must be made before March 19 with Sharon Philion, 626-4335.

Guest speaker for the afternoon is Eve Kommel.

The psychologist will speak on "Sex and the Married Woman."

All club news and announcements for this column are to be addressed to: Club Circuit, Farmington Observer, 23352 Farmington Road, Farmington 48024, and must arrive on the Monday prior to Thursday publication.

S. Heiden wins medical technology scholarship

Shari Heiden, a Farmington resident, was named first prize winner of the Dr. Donald Kaump Memorial scholarships. She was one of three students in Southfield's Providence Hospital School of Medical Technology named a recipient among the class of June 1982.

The awards are given for excellence in academic and clinical laboratory performance.

Following Ms. Heiden in the competition, Sharon Thomas of Huntington Woods and Winifred Wallace of Mount Clemens, tied for the second place award.

The students have completed academic studies in various universities and are now in a year of practical preparation in a medical laboratory. They study at Providence under the direction of licensed and registered medical technologists and physicians who specialize in pathology.

Dr. Kaump was a former chairman of the Providence department of pathology whose family established a scholarship fund in his memory.

The award provides money to help students pay the cost of their scientific education.

Author to lead class in Kitchen Glamour

Paula Wolfert, author and feature writer for several food publications, comes to Kitchen Glamour's, 26770 Grand River, to teach a four-part series.

The sessions begin at 6:30 p.m. March 30 to April 2.
