Peace is theme of breakfast

"Concerning Peace" is the theme of the monthly prayer breakfast at Mercy College of Detroit on March 18.

Auxiliary Bishop of Detroit Thomas J. Gumbleton is the speaker.
Bishop Gumbleton is recognized as a longtime advocate of peace and social justice, and has received a number of awards for his efforts to promote peace. In 1973, he visited South Vietnam on behalf of political prisoners; there, in 1979, he made a Christmas visit to the American hostages in Iran. He is currently president of both Bread for the World and Pax Christi-USA.

"We appreciate Bishop Gumbleton's leadership," said Sister Patricia McCarthy, OP, of Mercy's Campus Ministry. "As a churchman, he presents Christian pacifism as a thrust of the Gospel. Many who are concerned about the threat of nuclear war look to him as one of their spokespersons."

The prayer breakfast will take place in the Mercy College Conference Center from 7:30 to 8:30 a.m. A donation of $2 per person ($1.50 for students and senior citizens) includes a continental breakfast. Call Mercy College at 592-6205 or 592-6000 for information or reservations.
