

New VP

Glusac leaving SEMCOG for Chrysler

Anthony Jarson has been, promoted to vice president, for business and finance of Oakland Community Col-lege. Previously controller and trassure, he succeeds W.H. Nikkel, who refired. Jar-son of Sterling Heights joined the OCC administra-tion in 1966 after service at Macomb Community College and in industry. He has a bachelor's degree in ac-counting from the University of Detroit and a master's de-gree in education adminis-tration from Eastern Michi-gan University.

ment affairs. Glusac succeeds E. Harwood Rydholm, 60, of Union Lake, who will retire after 32 years of service with the No. 3 domestic automaker. ago.

retire after 32 years of service with the No. 3 domestic automaker. "Type had numerous job offers over the years." (Gausse staid, "but they have not had the appeal this one has. I'll be able to work in an important area for the service in the service of the Bigston - EMMOG's Executive Com-mittee will bod a special meeting Fri-day, March 25, to set up a "transition procedure." The executive committee will be asked to name Glussac's deputy, John M. Amberger, as acting executive director. Glusac said that, if asked, he will recommend Amberger be appointed executive director of the seven-county voluntary association of local govern-ments. Amberger. said be would be a candidate for the post. "We have a dama good staff: capa-ble, talented, dedicated," said Glusac, who brought in Amberger as sins deputy when he joined SEMCOG eight years ago.

AT CHRYSLER, Gluanc, 51, of Grosse Fointe Farma, will be responsi-brommen issues to flaw will be responsi-brommen issues as they affect the com-any, surveillance of regulatory activi-ty at all levels of government, and co-ordination of all civic affairs. He will report to Wendell W. Larsen, Gluase's career includes both elected and appointed positions in local gov-ernment, regional affairs, and private law practice. Since February 1974, he has served as top staff man at SEM

AUTO SHOW

COG, which does regional planning for transportation, air quality, water quali-ty, housing and other long-range pro-

Boys are Special

From 1970-1974, Glusac was corpo-ration counsel for the city of Detroit, supervising the city's 35-member legal staff.

Monday, March 15, 1982

Glusac was a member of the gover-nor's Special Commission on Local Government and a member of the gov-ernor's Task Force on "The Option Pro-cess."

(O)5A

From 1970-1974, Glusac was corpo-ration connect for the city of Detroit, supervising the city's 35-member legal A native of Highland Park, he was mayor of that city from 1955-1968. He also served as a councilman from 1963-ana and Illinois as part of the compa-ny's federal loan guarantee plan. Wayne State University. He is a former Wayne State University. He is a former Supervisors, past president of the Michigan Municipal League, and for mer executive chairman of the Detroit Wayne Countipal League, and for Michigan Municipal League, and for mer executive chairman of the Detroit Wayne Councipal League, and for mer executive chairman of the Detroit Goordinating Council.

State school chief rips Reagan budget grams which would receive the biggest reductions are: • Compensatory education - 36 percent.

 Billingual education - 29 percent. In addition to reductions in funds for programs in Michigan's public schools, the proposed Reagan budget would re-duce or eliminate several financial aid programs for students attending col-lege. 33 pe

Struction Phillip, E. Runkel said that fortection Phillip, E. Runkel said that foreid education funds nextly $50 million in degrad education funds nextly are 11 breadeut. Anno 12 million in degrad education funds next service with the president's modes of the found have a devastating effect on Michigan education, particularly kindle an environment of the same the state schools with 40 forecast less forefart education with the state schools are receiving during the current shelp same here needed with the state school and here present less form the site school warring the 1980-81 school very. BINETEL SPORE in a press confert

RUNKEL SPOKE in a news confer-ence with Reps. William Ford, D-Tay-lor, and Carl Pursell, R-Plymouth, who came to Detroit Metropolitan Airport to participate in a one-day information and strategy session sponsored by the Michigan Association of State and Federal Program Specialists. The state superintendent said prorege. "Our data indicate that upwards of 100,000 Michigan college students who are receiving financial assistance this year — about one out of every five col-lege students — would no longer qual-fy for assistance next year," he said. "IN DETROIT alone, about 17,000 students who attend the Detroit Public students who attend the Detroit Public Schools will be deprived of needed help in reading and math that they would normally receive under the federal compensatory education program," Runkel said.

Vocational and adult education —

(III) As a community service, Botsford General Hospital will be offering a free training program for area citizens in cardiop-ulmonary resustitation (CPR). The ultimate purpose is to enable citizens to perform (CPR) of hear attack victims until emergency medical personnel arrive. Certified instruc-tors will teach the course. The one-session. 3-hour "Heart Saver" course will be offered the first Thursday of each month at 7:00 P.M. in class rooms 202 & 203 on the second floor of the Professional Building which is located in front of the hospital. To pre-register (required), please call the Department of Health Promotion and Development at 471-8091, on Mon-day through Friday from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. Class size is limited, so please register early. Botsford General Hospit 41 is located at 22050 Grand River Ave. Farmington Hills 48024. (North of 8 Mile Rd., behind the Botsford Inn).

.....................

LEARN HOW TO

SAVE A LIFE

PLEASE BE ADVISED THAT Former Customers of JOSEPH A. STOLTZ Custom Tailors Can continue to receive the quality tailoring and services of PAUL CICCHINI

Located at 430 N. Woodward, corner of Euclid, in Birmingham

May I take this opportunity to thank again Joseph's many wonderful customers for the patronage, friendship, and more re-cently, their understanding and support.

Sincerely, MARION E. STOLTZ

Due to so-weather, outer March 20 Mid-Winter Sale will be extended

Save 10% to 50%

23600 Michigan Ave. east of Telegraph 5 d Hills 4107 Telegraph at Long Lake Rd. 6 1110 S. Rochester Rd. In Winchester Mail

FROM THE CHICAGO SALF AUTO SHOW

Slightly used national Auto Show and Convention Carpet-ing now available in a wide range of colors and styles. *1.00 to *3.95 per sq. yd. 10.000 z, yds. now available length up to 200' long

CARPET