

Added Touches

Any new accessory is sure to give your wardrobe a radiant lift. Big earrings, big bracelets in copper, wood and silver are big news again. But remember, only wear one or two bold pieces at a time so you don't look excessive.

Belts are strong too, worn as showpieces and slung at the hip. Obi wraps continue, worn lower now, and many belts are made specifically to be slouched around the hip. The belt of the moment is concha — a string of leather laced with silver circles.

The hottest item is an inexpensive chamol, the kind you use to wash your car, but it's neatly trimmed and worn at the neckline or across the hips. It's a fun fad that won't set you back a bundle but will update your wardrobe.

New shoes are a good way to get into spring and this season they range from flat and free to fun and fancy. At the far left, the newest thong makes an appearance, this year worn with pants of all lengths. As the shoes make the curve, the pump's heels get diverse offering designs and heights for everyone. Shoes from Nicks Kicks and Sandilar. Pouch purse from Sandilar, both in Southfield.
