HILL AND DALE GARDEN CLUB meets at 8 p.m. tonight in the band room of Harrison High School, 12 Mile Road, between Orchard Lake and Middlebelt roads.

Guest speaker for the evening is Mrs. Keith Willoughby, a national council master judge, and master blue ribbon judge of National Council of Accredited Flower Shows. She will demonstrate contemporary flower arranging.

Special invitations have been extended to Botsford Garden Club and Farmington Garden Club members for this meeting. Penny Stairs, who got the club of Farmington area Junior Gardeners under way a couple of seasons ago, has been nominated as president of the club for the 1982-83 term.

Others on the nominations slate are Mary Baha, Jan Patrel, Dee Dee Swan, Cathy Johnson, Janet Gould and Sandy Doolan.

The club members are now taking orders for its 10th annual garden plant sale that will culminate with purchaser's pick-up May 20.

Persons wishing an order blank are invited to call Mrs. Swan, 658-7240, or Beth Callow, 476-9034. Proceeds from the sale are earmarked for the garden therapy program the club sponsors in area schools.

AMERICAN BUSINESS WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION (ABWA), Mayflower Chapter, meets at 6:30 p.m. Monday, April 12 in the Chulet restaurant, 39305 Plymouth Road, Livonia.

The club is comprised of members from Novi, Plymouth, Northville, Farmington, Canton, South Lyon and Redford. Newcomers are welcomed.

Cocktails are served at 6:30 p.m. and dinner at 7 p.m., followed by the business meeting.

Membership inquiries are taken by Judy Tigan at home, 478-2567, or at her place of business, 356-7601.

PLYMOUTH CHILD BIRTH EDUCATION ASSOCIATION begins its new series of classes Tuesday, April 13, in Holy Trinity Church in Livonia. Inquiries are taken by calling the association at 459-7477.

ALZHEIMER'S DISEASE AND RELATED DISORDERS ASSOCIATION, Farmington Area Support Group, meets at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 13 in the lower level of Farmington Hills Branch Library, 31737 12 Mile Road.

The group is made up of persons who are caring for victims of Alzheimer's disease or other senile dementia disorders.

All meetings and all events sponsored by the group are open without charge to interested persons. Lenore Protoszek will take inquiries at 474-5385, evenings only.

OVEREATERS ANONYMOUS meet at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, April 14 in Novi United Methodist Church, 41671 10 Mile Road, Novi.

The fellowship uses the principles of Alcoholics Anonymous to overcome compulsive eating habits. Barb will take inquiries at 553-3176.

FARMINGTON ARTISTS CLUB hosts Mark Yasenchak when the group meets at 8 p.m. Wednesday, April 14 in Farmington Hills Community Library on 12 Mile Road.

Yasenchak will give a presentation on photographing artwork for portfolios and juror screenings. The lecture and slide show will cover the photographing of both two and three dimensional artwork.

Since 1979 Yasenchak has taught filmmaking in public schools throughout the state in conjunction with Michigan Council for the Arts. Now freelancing within the film industry, his own production company, Oberon Films, is producing a series of instructional and display films on metalworking techniques for the craftsman and artist.

"Mokume-Gane," the first film of the series, deals with a Japanese diffusing and patterning technique for non-ferrous metals.

WAYNE STATE UNIVERSITY FACULTY WIVES CLUB will give a $1,000 check to Wayne's School of Social Work when members meet for their spring luncheon Thursday, April 15.

The money will be used for a project called "Oral History of Detroit's Women," directed by Prof. A. Krasner. Video-tape interviews of 12 contemporary Detroit women who have made pivotal contributions in the areas of community service, cultural development, business and labor, politics and women's rights, will be made and placed in the library of the school.

Mrs. L. Murray Thomas begins her presidency of the club on the day of the luncheon in the Edsel and Eleanor Ford House in Grosse Pointe Shores.

Needlelace taught here

The traditional and intricate craft of needlelace will be taught in Farmington Community Center beginning at 9:30 a.m. April 22 by Zobel Arakelian. Arakelian is a member of the Great Lakes Lace Group and of International Old Laces and has studied this art form extensively with teachers throughout the country. Intricate and beautiful designs from the delicate connecting of threads make this handwork especially prized as an heirloom craft.

The four-session class is $20 plus materials fee. Registration is in the center, 24705 Farmington Road.
