F. CARL STARK

Mr. Stark, 66, of Farmington Hills died April 23 in Providence Hospital.

Oakway hosts season finale

Oakway Symphony Orchestra's final concert of the season will feature DeBelle's Coppelius, performed by the Contemporary Civic Ballet Company, May 16 at 3 p.m. at Harrison High School.

The program will begin with the orchestra directed by Francesco Di Blasi, presenting Warlock's Capriol, and Debussy's Afternoon of the Fawn. It features harpist, Patricia Terry, and flutist, Pamela Hill. The ballet, Coppelius, will be performed. Featured in the role of Frantz is James Dunne, whose experience ranges from Broadway appearances in Bob Fosse's Dancin' to featured performances with the Boston, Harkness, and Irish Ballet Companies. Rose Marie Floyd has served as arts director and choreographer of her company since its inception. A graduate of Wayne State University, she holds a fellow membership with the Imperial Society of London, and is recipient of the Advanced Maestro Cecchetti Diploma, an honor shared by only one other performer in the United States.

Featured performer in Afternoon of the Fawn, Pamela Hill holds music degrees from the University of Michigan and Wayne State. She has served at various public schools in the position of director and teacher. Principle flutist with the Michigan Opera Theater, she has also played with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra in addition to her performances with the Oakway Symphony.

OCC mini-courses include politics

"Crucial Political Issues" taught by State Sen. Doug Ross, D-Southfield, and "Mating Magic" taught by Detroit News counselor-columnist, Joan Greenfield, are among the topics of short courses offered in a new series of "Many Mini Courses" sponsored by the Southeast Campus of Oakland Community College.

All courses are being offered repetitively during the months of May, June, July and August. In addition to the courses offered in four 1 1/2-hour sessions each month, a one-day, six-hour workshop will be held from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, May 22. This option enables students and members of the community to enroll in a number of courses throughout the summer. The workshop also allows individuals to complete one course in one day.

A tuition rate of $15 will apply to all courses and workshops offered throughout the spring and summer. Registration for the "Many Mini Courses" is currently under way.

For a brochure and/or additional information, call the Office of Student Activities at the Southeast Campus, 552-8906.
