Memories linger on

The town's still talking about the coup Farmington-8 Lions Club pulled off late in May for the dedication of Farmington Historical Museum. The memories linger on with the 1870 quadrilles danced by the guests (above) to the calls of dancemaster Glen Morningstar at upper right . . . and the late 19th century costumes worn by the guests. At left are Mae Bennet and Marjorie Colburn in their 1870 costumes. In the photo below are Phillaine Lahiff and Nancy Ringold.

THRILL A YOUNG SAILOR WITH A FINE SHIP

She is a grand and seaworthy sailboat...the deck of genuine mahogany, adjustable sails of canvas, mast and boom of wood, other parts of colorful plastic...sleek, bright and durable. Even lead ballast in keel so that she will right herself with sails water-soaked. In our Toy Department. 16 1/2" H, 12.50; 20 1/4" H with adjustable rudder, $18.
