

Members of the First Michigan Colonial Fife & Drum Corps will be dressed for the occasion — Fort Wayne Days on Saturday-Sunday at the historic fort in Detroit.

upcoming things to do

- OPERA EVENT
The Michigan Opera Theatre will present an "Opera Event," featuring Oral Moses, Maurice Wheeler and Colleen Downey, singing in English with accompanist Tim Hoekman, at noon today at Oakland Mall in Troy. The free concert will feature songs from "Mikado," "Man of La Mancha" and "Oklahoma." Song, dance and mime will be used to demonstrate what opera is all about.
- CITYWIDE DANCE
B'nai B'rith's first citywide dance will be held from 9 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. Saturday at Roma's of Bloomfield, 2101 S. Telegraph, Bloomfield Hills. Entertainment will be provided by the big-band sound of Johnny Trudell and his 14-piece orchestra. The event is open to the public for $5 per person in advance and $6 per person at the door. For details, call B'nai B'rith at 552-8177.
- PAUL LOCRICHIO
Entertainer Paul Locrichio has returned to Dewey's in the Michigan Inn in Southfield for a month-long engagement through July 3. Locrichio's show consists of songs, impersonations and audience participation. His back-up band performs dance sets of 40 tunes. Performances begin at 9 p.m., and the band plays until 1:30 a.m. There is no cover charge.
- BIG BANDS
The sound of the 1940s is back at Somerset Mall in Troy beginning Monday when dancing to the music of big bands begins. The program is offered from 7:30-10:30 p.m. Mondays through June. Men are asked to wear sport jackets and women are asked to choose daytime attire. The dance nights are open to the public without charge.
- SUMMER COURSES
The Academy of the Arts at Lycee International, a Southfield-based independent school, is offering summer courses. Potential students can meet the staff of professional artist-teachers and view the facilities when the academy holds an open house from 1-4 p.m. Saturday. The academy is at the corner of Evergreen and 13 Mile. The summer schedule of classes begins June 21 and continues to July 31. Courses offered include acting, dance, voice development, 8mm-film production and music.
- MUSICAL GROUP
Strider, a five-member instrumental-vocal group, will appear Monday through June 26 in Fanny's at the Troy Hilton Inn. Singer Shelley Quayle is backed by a four-man band who perform top 40 tunes. Strider will perform from 8:50 p.m. to 1:30 a.m. Mondays-Saturdays. There is no cover charge.
- MERRIE MELODIE
"Days of Heaven" (PG) starring Richard Gere, Brooke Adams, Sam Shepard, Linda Manz and Robert Wilke is being screened through June 20 at the Merrie Melodie Theatre at Meadowbrook Village Mall in Avon Township. The Terrence Malick film received an Academy Award for national light cinematography. For showtimes, call 375-0911.
- BOBBY SHORT
Entertainer Bobby Short will sign autographs to promote his new record album from 3-4 p.m. Sunday at Harmony House in Oakland Mall, Troy, and from 1-3 p.m. at Bonwit Teller at Somerset Mall, Big Beaver at Cooley Road. Troy's new album is "Moments Like This" on Elektra Records.
- MAMA MIA
"The Owl and the Pussycat," an upbeat Broadway comedy by Bill Manhoff, opens Saturday at Mama Mia Restaurant and Lounge, 9361 Cooley Lake Road, Union Lake. The show stars Jean Garrowing and Tom Steward and is directed by Edgar A. Guest III. Performances will be every Saturday night throughout the summer, with dinner at 7 p.m. and show at 8:30. Tickets are $14.95 per person for dinner and show. For reservations, call 353-1535.
- BLUEGRASS FESTIVAL
Musicians are taking down their
- fiddles and rosinning up their bows for the annual Greenfield Village Bluegrass Festival on Saturday-Sunday in Dearborn. Bluegrass performers who will play on the Village Activities Field include Ralph Stanley and the Clinch Mountain Boys, Doug Dillard, Frank Necessary and the Wheeling Grass, and Bill Harrell and the Virginians. Performances will begin each day at 9:30 a.m., with the last performance ending at 5 p.m., the village closing time.
- CAR CARNIVAL
More than 1,000 antique, classic, sports and special-interest automobiles from the brass era through the classics into the modern cars will be exhibited at the Michigan Region of the Classic Car Club of America's annual Carnival of Cars from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday at the former Packard Proving Grounds (now the location of the Ford Trim Plant) on Van Dyke between 22 and 23 Mile roads north of Utica. Admission is $2 per person. Children under 12 are free.
- MOVIE TRIVIA
The Marquis Theatre in Northville has introduced movie trivia contests for weekend moviegoers. Patrons view movie film clips and selected contestants attempt to answer trivia questions. Prizes are awarded to participants with correct answers. The Marquis Theatre, built in 1926 as a vaudeville house, was restored in 1978 by Inga and Jay Zayit. It has been designated a historical site.
- BENEFIT CONCERT
The Vietnam Veterans of America, Chapter No. 9, Detroit, will hold a benefit concert featuring Mitch Ryder, the Look and several other local bands at 8 p.m. Monday at Harpo's in Detroit. Money raised from the benefit concert will go toward establishment of a permanent home (office and meeting hall) for Vietnam Veterans in the metropolitan area. Tickets at $5 are available at Harpo's, all CTC outlets, or through any Chapter No. 9 officer.
- PUB CRAWL
A "craw" through 24 of Detroit's pubs will be featured at the Michigan Opera Theatre's Pub Crawl fundraiser tonight. Crawlers pay $6 for a button that allows them to travel the entire circuit at their own pace, getting on and off special "Suds X-Press" buses from 6 p.m. to midnight. Buses will originate at the Joe Louis Arena Olympic Room, or crawlers may board at any of the participating pubs. Buttons for the crawl, limited to 3,000 patrons, are on sale at the Music Hall Box Office and the MOT Opera Boutique at the Renaissance Center, Tower 100. For further information, call MOT at 963-3717.
- FORT WAYNE
The sights and sounds of 18th and 19th century Detroit will be experienced when the Detroit Historical Society Guild hosts its annual Fort Wayne Days on Saturday-Sunday at Detroit's historic Fort Wayne. The event will begin at 10 a.m. and continue to 4 p.m. Admission to Fort Wayne is $1 for adults, 50 cents for senior citizens and children 12-18 and 25 cents for children under 12.
- MASONIC TEMPLE
Grover Washington, Jr., will star in a concert "Saxophones — New Voice" at 8 p.m. Sunday at the Masonic Temple in Detroit. Guest will be Pieces of a Dream, a Philadelphia trio. Tickets at $13.50 and $12.50 are available at the Masonic Temple box office and all CTC outlets.
- DSO CONCERTS
The Detroit Symphony Orchestra will visit four regional shopping malls to present free concerts conducted by Richard Hayman. The pops conductor will lead the DSO in an "America the Beautiful" program at 7 p.m. Wednesday at Fairlane Town Center in Dearborn, 7 p.m. June 17 at Briarwood Mall in Ann Arbor, at 7 p.m. June 18 at Lakeside Mall in Sterling Heights and at 2 p.m. June 19 at Twelve Oaks Mall in Novi. The tribute will be highlighted by works from top productions such as "Music Man" and "Mame," plus music from motion pictures including "Dr. Zhivago," "Rocky" and "Chariots of Fire."

'Working' plays at Attic Theatre

The hopes, joys, dreams and frustrations of American workers from all walks of life are captured in the musical "Working," based on the book by Studs Terkel, which runs through July 17 at the Attic Theatre in Detroit.

Performances are at 8 p.m. Thursdays-Fridays, 6 and 9 p.m. Saturdays and 6:30 p.m. Sundays at 525 E. Lafayette at Beaubien in Greektown. Tickets are $5 and $8. For information and reservations, call 963-7783.

Using the original words of ordinary Americans, the stage adaptation by Stephen Schwartz explores a typical workday from a Monday morning to the second shift.

Firemen, waitresses, call girls, mill hands, gas-meter readers and others sing and dance as they work.
