Each week the Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Department will present a synopsis of upcoming activities in this column. For further information regarding our programs, contact our office at 474-6115.

DANCEFIT — The Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Department is offering a summer session of DanceFit at the Shiawassee Recreation Center, 30415 Shiawassee. DanceFit is a cardiovascular fitness program that combines the basic elements of a good fitness workout with the fun of dancing, offering an exciting way to become physically fit. The session begins on Monday, June 28, and will continue on a Monday and Wednesday schedule through August 4. The class will be held as follows: Session 1, 9-10 a.m. or Session II, 6:30-7:30 p.m. The fee is $25 per participant.

TAE KWON DO — This form of karate will be starting June 15 at the Shiawassee Recreation Center, 30415 Shiawassee Road in Farmington Hills. Tae Kwon Do emphasizes self-awareness, weight control, self-discipline and a heightened sense of inner peace. Classes will be held Tuesday and Thursday from 6:30-8:30 p.m. and open to participants age 6 and older. Class instructor will be Rich Cleveland, who holds a first-degree black belt. Participant fee will be $25 per month.

SENIOR ADULT DISCOUNT PICTURES — The Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Senior Adult staff is again hosting at The Gathering Place, senior discount card distribution. Oakland-Livingston Human Services Agency personnel will be at the center on Friday, June 18, from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 1:30-3:30 p.m., to take your picture and issue identification cards. You will need to bring your Social Security number, proof of Oakland County residence and you must be 60 years of age or older. The Senior Adult center is located at the Mercy Center on 11 Mile Road, east of Middlebelt.

DAY CAMPING — We are offering day camping at "Com-on-a-wanna Camp" for youth ages 6-8 years and at "Camp-out" for those 9-12 years of age. The day camping experience will include camping activities, nature lore, fishing, hiking, environmental experiences, camp craft and much more. The first session begins the week of June 21 and the camp will meet daily, Monday through Friday, 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. and on Thursdays 2-7 p.m. The site of the camp is Oakland Community College, Orchard Ridge Campus. Campers will need a sack lunch in addition to appropriate "outdoor" clothing.

ADAPTIVE COFFEE HOUSE — Join us for a "School's out" celebration on Friday, June 11, 7-9 p.m. This activity is designed for mildly to moderately, mentally and/or physically impaired individuals, 14 years of age and up. The program will begin at 7 p.m. and take place at the Shiawassee Recreation Center, 30415 Shiawassee Road. Fee is 50 cents at the door.

PHOTO CONTEST — Theme: Summer Fun. Load your camera and start taking pictures of activities and events that are presented by the Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Department as leisure pursuits as part of their summer activities which take place in the Farmington area. The categories include: 8 x 10 black and white prints; 8 x 10 color prints; color slides. There are two age divisions: 17 years and under, 18 years and over, with awards to be given in each category. Complete entry and rules are available at the Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Department Office, at 31555 11 Mile Road. All entries must be postmarked by midnight, Monday, August 2.
