Let's team up for a successful garage sale

It's that time of the year again when you get that Spring Clean-up bug and begin tossing unwanted items out of the house and into the garage. What a good idea for having a garage sale since they're out there anyway?

Your hometown newspaper can help you to organize some important details that are necessary in having a profitable and successful sale. Here are a few timely tips we've put together for YOU!

- WHAT TO SELL: Anything that still has usability and some value... DOUBLE SALE: Many people have found a worthwhile to combine their garage sale with that of a friend or neighbor... LENGTH OF SALE: The most productive sales are those that run at least three days... PRICING: Start by listing all items by category on an inventory sheet

Antiques for example, should be listed separately from other items. Clothing should be priced at approximately one-eighth the original cost. Your town's newspaper can help you to organize some important details that are necessary in having a profitable and successful sale.
