Gardeners bring home state honors

Members of Hill and Dale Garden Club walked away from Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan's three-day spring convention with six awards.

The club won the "Blue Rosette" for Achievement in Home Flower Show and the National Pink Placement Award in Home Flower Show. Both were prepared by member Grace Bulman.

The club captured both the Michigan Award of Merit for Photography and the Michigan Award of Merit for Publicity. The photography entry was prepared by Beth Callow and the publicity entry by Janet Gould. The club's yearbook took the top prize for clubs having a membership of 70-99. And the club's Junior Gardeners' Yearbook took the first place in competition with clubs with membership less than 25.

This week, Katie Wemyss turns the presidential gavel over to Penny Stairs in installation ceremonies that are followed with a champagne reception for the incoming officers.

Stairs will work with vice presidents Mrs. James Bakna, Janet Patrell and Mrs. Philip Swan for the 1982-83 season.

Other new officers are Mrs. Christopher Johnston, Mrs. James Gould and Mrs. James Deaton.
