Bottle, can drive is on

Farmington Area Jaycees will be on the grounds near Kroger's, on Grand River and Halsted, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, June 19, for the community service group's bottle and can drive.

The Jaycees will be collecting all returnable-for-deposit bottles and cans residents will donate in the fund-raiser to support the many projects on this year's calendar.

The group will get an assist in the drive from the owner and employees of Farmington Hills Market, at 10 Mile and Orchard Lake roads, who will be helping sort the donations.

Mercy sets summer rates

Lower rates for the summer are in effect now for those who want to use Mercy Center's gym and pool facilities, which is available for church, school, scouts or family groups.

The summer swim program will run from June 20 to Aug. 30. Open swim, swimming instruction, exercise programs and programs for the handicapped and seniors are offered.

Mercy Center is on 11 Mile Road, east of Middlebelt. Inquiries are taken by calling the center at 476-8010.

Young adults called for library volunteers

Young adults, from age 11 and up, are invited to attend organizational meetings which will spell out the different volunteer jobs available in the two libraries for the summer.

The organizational sessions will begin at 2 p.m. Friday, June 25, in Farmington Branch Library on Liberty Street and at 2 p.m. Wednesday, June 30, in Farmington Hills Branch Library on 12 Mile Road.

The volunteers will get training sessions in helping the librarians and library staff with processing and behind the scene's jobs, assisting with children's programs and supervising home computer use in the children's rooms.

Inquiries will be taken by Lauren Bowman in Farmington Hills Branch Library, 533-0300, and Denise Moll in Farmington Branch Library, 474-7770.
