roll call report

Here's how area House members were recorded on major roll call votes June 3-9. There was no Senate vote.

NAMING CIA AGENTS — By a vote of 315-32, the House approved the conference report on a bill making it a crime to discise the names of U.S. intelligence agents. Penalties would working for the government. But the titure of renalties would shatsorian and othere reagged it can apply when the publication needly repeats angent all can apply when the publication needly repeats angent all can apply when the publication needly repeats angent all can apply when the publication study repeats angent all can apply when the publication study repeats angent all can apply when the publication study repeats angent and the can be considered to the call the can be considered to the call the can be considered to the call th agents."

Opponent Don Edwards, D-Calif., said the bill would "trample on First Amendment freedom" because "for the first time in American history, the publication of information obtained lawfully from publicly available sources would be made criminal." Members voting "yea" favored passage of the Intelligence Identities Protection Act.
Reps. Carl Pursell, R-Plymouth, William Ford, D-Taylor, William Brodhead, D-Detroit, and William Broomfield, R-Birming-base of the Proceedings of the P ham, voted "yea." Rep. James Blanchard, D-Pleasant Ridge, did not vote.

Rep. James Blanchard, D-Pleasant Ridge, did not vote.

MEMBERS TAXES — By a vote of 176-218, the House defeated an attempt to put congressmen on the same footing as other taxpayers when deducting sway-from-home living expenses. This voided a pending member of the state of the s cember. Ford and Brodhead voted "yea." Pursell, Bonior and Broomfield voted "nay." Blanchard did not vote.

administrators'

OU changes

titles, duties

LIMIT OF $3,000 — Immediately following the preceding vote, the House went on record in favor of restoring the $3,000 ceiling of deductions for Washington living expenses. The tally was $56 or and $4 against. The issue now lies in a House-Senate conference. Members voting 'yea' wanted to repeal last year's law that increased members' Washington tax deductions, and they wanted to restore the $3,000 limit on deductions for away-from-home living the state of the state of ing expenses.

Pursell, Bonior, Brodhead and Broomfield voted "yea."

Blanchard did not vote.

GOP BUNGET — By a vote of 220-207, the House approved the Republican version of legislation setting budget targets primarily for fiscal 1983 but also for 1984 and 1985. On a later tally of 1920, the House formally adopted the GOP plan as its budget resolution. The measure was sent to conference with the Senate. The GOP budget projects a 1983 deficit of 1983 billion, down from the $122.2 billion deficit projected in the budget President Reagan sent to Congress in February. Its 1983 defense spending hite is $7.9 billion less than the president had requested, but it still provides the largest peacetime military budget increase in history. It cuts Medicare, Medicaid, welfare, Food Stamps and other social voto), yet it is not as hards in the Pemocratic alternative (see account of the control of the c

DEMOCRATIC BUDGET — By a vote of 202-225 against, the House rejected the Democratic budget plan, which called for higher social spending and smaller defense increases that contained in the GOP budget. Although the Democrats would have raised more revenue through higher tax increases, their projected 1938 delicit of $107.4 billion was about $48$ billion higher than the GOP deficit. Majority Leader Jim Wright, D-Tex., said a key emphasis of the Democratic budget was "to try to help people through this recession, to stimulate jobs and economic revival..."
The Democratic budget was voted on before consideration of the GOP plan, and members voting "yea". saw it as their first choice among the competing budget proposals.
Blanchard, Bonior, Brodhead and Ford voted "yea."
Broomfield and Pursuel voted "nay."

Broomfield and Pursell voted "nay.

Five veteran Oakland University ad-ministrators recently were given in-creased duties, title changes or differ-ent administrative units. Keith Kleckner of Birmingham is senior vice-president for university af-fairs.

Robert Swanson of Avon Township moved from vice-president for devel-opment to vice-president for develop-mental affairs.

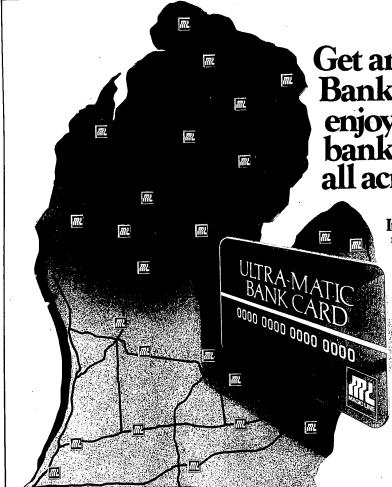

Robert Dearth has been moved from assistant vice-president to director of cultural affairs, and Corey Van Fleet, director of athletics will continue in that job. Both will answer to the president. They were transferred from other administrative units.

31505 Grand River • Farmington

(in the old "Winery Building") also visit our showcase store at:

33300 Slocum Drive • Farmington • 476-7272 3601 Plymouth Road • Ann Arbor • 995-9095

Get an Ultra-Matic Bank Card and enjoy Magic Line banking convenience all across the state.

It's free with any checking account!

Now there are more than 500 good reasons to put the Ultra-Matic Bank Card at the top of your summer list, because Ultra-Matic is part of Magic Line. And that means you can now use your Ultra-Matic Bank Card at automatic teller machines all over the state 24 hours a day. You'll find Magic Line locations in places like Traverse City, Holland, Muskegon, Grand Rapids, Lansing, Flint, Bay City and on and on.

There are more than 500 easy-to-find Magic Line locations in Michigan. Simply look for the wigely "ML" Magic Line symbol, just like the one on the front of your Ultra-Matic Bank Card. You can also get a handy Magic Line locations guide at any of our offices, to keep with you as you travel around the state.

Get your Ultra-Matic Bank Card today—it's free with any checking account at Detroit Bank & Trust, or any of our metro Detroit affiliates. Ultra-Matic is the convenient card that gets you money when you need it. Like Magic!

DETROIT BANK & TRUST, DETROIT BANK-SOUTHFIELD, DETROIT BANK-STERLING, DETROIT BANK-NOVI, DETROIT BANK-LIVONIA, DETROIT BANK-TROY, DETROIT BANK-WARREN