

Nancy Gurwin and Joe Lannen are the loving couple, whose lifetime of marital bliss and strife is told in the musical "I Do! I Do!" opening June 24 at the Ramada Inn in Southfield.

upcoming things to do

- MUSICAL OPENING
Edie Adams stars as Miss Mona, the madam, in the musical comedy "The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas," opening Wednesday at the Birmingham Theatre, 211 S. Woodward, Birmingham. Henderson Forsythe will recreate his original Broadway role as the sheriff who closes down the infamous Chicken Ranch. Written by Larry L. King and Peter Masteron, the show is based on an actual brothel in La Grange, Texas — and the fight to keep it open. For ticket information call the theater box office at 644-3533.
- AUDITIONS OPEN
The Metropolitan Repertory Company will hold auditions for pianists to accompany musical dinner theater productions and cabaret entertainment at 7 p.m. June 24 at Apt. 207, 600 W. Brown, Birmingham. For further information call 544-7344 or 645-1721.
- AT MAXWELL'S
Alexander Zonjic's Quartet performs Monday evenings at Maxwell's in the Farmington Hilton, 38127 W. 10 Mile Road, Farmington. Zonjic, who plays jazz flute, recently cut a classical album on the Danzon label. Rand Allen plays Top 40 tunes Tuesdays-Saturdays at Maxwell's. The group includes Randall Lynch, Jerry Wesley, Allen Lynch, Tony Cartwright and vocalists Diane Williamson and Patricia Clemmons. Zonjic's Quartet also plays Tuesdays-Saturdays through July 3 at Archibald's, 333 S. Woodward, Birmingham.
- "I DO!"
"I Do! I Do!" the Broadway hit by Tom Jones and Harvey Schmidt opens June 24 at the Ramada Inn, 28225 Telegraph, Southfield. The show stars Nancy Gurwin and co-stars Joe Lannen. The Nancy Gurwin Productions musical has been performed for more than 21 months in several major restaurants in the metro-Detroit area. It also has been a traveling show to many private clubs and organizations. Performances at the Ramada Inn will be every Friday night for 10 weeks. Sit-down dinner at 7 p.m. will be followed by the show at 8:30. Tickets are $17.95 per person for dinner and show. For reservations call 555-2929.
- WAGON WHEEL
The Rick Hall Band is the attraction through Sunday at the Wagon Wheel Saloon, Rochester Road at Big Beaver, Troy. Led by Mike and perform Monday-Tuesday and Visitor opens Wednesday and continues through June 27.
- OPEN HOUSE
Will-O-Way Apprentice Theatre in Bloomfield Hills is holding registration for summer term classes which begin the week of July 11. An open house from 3:30-6 p.m. Sunday will provide time for informal discussions, meeting teachers and planning class schedules with the school's director, Celia Merrill Turner. Will-O-Way has been licensed as a trade school by the Michigan State Board of Education since 1948. Classes are open to all ages. For a class schedule, more information or registration call 644-4418. Will-O-Way is at 775 W. Long Lake Road between Telegraph and Lahser.
- HOLLY HOTEL
A patriotic musical "Red, White and Broadway" will headline the special Father's Day celebration Friday-Sunday at the historic Holly Hotel in Holly. The cast includes professionals Nick Beasanky of Farmington, Rebecca Wheeler-Killer of West Bloomfield, Shirley Anne Kaladjan of Bloomfield Hills and Ron Carter of Pontiac. The entire celebration has

table talk

CHUCK MUER'S Sidwalk Cafe has opened for the season at the Hotel Pontchartrain in downtown Detroit. The cafe, in its 12th year, serves up such specialties as chilled mussels pliquante, salmon salad sandwich, chilled gaspacho and pineapple fruit boat.
Hours are 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Mondays-Fridays. Wine and beer is available until 5 p.m. under the outdoor canopy.
Muer's P'Jazz concert series got under way last week on the hotel's pool terrace. Concert-goers can hear the music from reserved seats at tables, or by purchasing tickets for standing room. Charcoal-grill food service has been expanded to include tenderloin steak sandwiches on buns and chicken teriyaki in pita bread. A wider selection of cocktails also is available.

WICKER WORKS restaurant at the Northfield Hilton in Troy has packed some tempting vittles "to go," for people who want to take along a picnic-style snack to an outdoor concert or a casual meal.
Plump, lean roast beef is served on halves of pita bread, accompanied by German potato salad and vegetables vinaigrette. Also available besides roast beef is chicken, salami, corned beef and ham.

Half pockets are $3.50, whole pockets are $5. The carry-outs may be ordered from 7 a.m. to 11 p.m. daily by calling 878-2100.
FATHER'S DAY can be celebrated in a different way, at the second annual Gay Nineties Father's Day Brunch from 11:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Sunday at the Michigan Inn in Southfield. An old-fashioned candy shop and a photographer to take old-time portraits of each family add a novel touch to the brunch. Part of the proceeds will go to benefit Big Brothers/Big Sisters in Detroit. The brunch is $11.95 for adults, $5.95 for children under 12. For reservations, call 559-6500.

Also happening at the Michigan Inn is outdoor lunches served at Dewey's Poolside Cafe. Under umbrella tables, diners can partake of a buffet-style meal from 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. weekdays, 7 p.m. weekends.
