'Sunset' bills signed into law

Governor Milliken signed into law two parts of the Faust-Ross 10-Point Plan for improving Michigan's economy and job climate.

State Sen. Doug Ross, D-Southfield, sponsor of the two bills, hailed the signings "as a major victory in our fight to get more jobs in Michigan."

Senate Bill 323, which would establish a "one-stop" permit process for state business regulation. Oregon and Washington have instituted similar programs which have dramatically cut regulatory red tape and lured new enterprises and jobs into those states.

The bill designates the Michigan Department of Commerce as an exclusive contact point for new businesses when complying with state regulations.

Services were July 3 at Heeneysundquist Funeral Home, Farmington, with the Rev. Victor F. Halboth Sr. officiating. Burial was in Parkview Memorial Cemetery, Livonia.
