Teen center under way

Summer Activities Center for teens, initiated by Farmington Youth Assistance five summer ago, is under way now for those who want to drop in or take part in the scheduled events. Karen Goodsen (above left) chooses to tackle the pinball machines in Shiawassee Recreation Center on Shiawassee Road between Nine Mile and Orchard Lake roads, which is also furnished with table tennis and pool tables. Lonnie Ford (above left), a reserve tight end for the Detroit Lions, is assistant director at the center for the summer. At far left, Beth Andrusen checks over the sign-up sheet for the field trips on the summer schedule and to her right director Darryl Emerson signs a check for the next roller skating party. There is no charge for the 13-17-year-old set, but a parent-signed permission slip is asked at the door 4-6 p.m. and 7-10 p.m. daily, except for Tuesdays, reserved for field trips.

BETHANY meets at 8 p.m. Friday, July 9 in Mercy Conference Center, 11 Mile Road, east of Middlebelt Road. The group is made up of separated, single and divorced Christians.

Discussion for the evening is "Stress," led by Karen Hemp, a social worker.

Newcomers will be welcome. Participants are asked to use Gate 4 when entering the conference complex on 11 Mile Road.

Inquiries about the group will be taken by Joan Gray, 478-7343.

SINGLE-AIRES, a group made up of singles over the age of 21, meet for a dance party at 9 p.m. Saturday, July 10 in Red Cedars, 23055 Telegraph Road, just north of Nine Mile Road in Southfield.

Inquiries will be taken by Mary Adams, 885-6211.

OVEREATERS ANONYMOUS is a fellowship of men and women who meet to share their experience, strength and hope with one another in order that they may solve their common problem, and help those who still suffer from compulsive overeating.

There are two chapters in the area now accessible to Farmington and Farmington Hills residents.

"Our purpose is to stop eating compulsively," said one anonymous member, speaking for the group. "We welcome in fellowship and friendly understanding all those who share our common problem."

"The only requirement is a desire to stop eating compulsively. There are no dues or fees."

Inquiries are taken by calling the Overeaters Anonymous Hotline, 545-5433.

ALZHEIMER'S DISEASE AND RELATED DISORDERS ASSOCIATION (ADRDA) Southfield Family Support Group, meets at 7:30 p.m. Monday, July 12, in Providence Hospital's Donald Kaump Room, 7D. The hospital is located at 16001 Nine Mile Road, Southfield.

Guest speaker for the evening is Kathleen Minty, director of Orchard Hills Adult Day Care Center.

There is no charge for any ADRDA meetings. The groups work to support family members who are caring for a victim of Alzheimer's disease or similar irreversible brain diseases commonly referred to as senility.

Persons interested in attending the Southfield meeting are asked to park in the lot on the north side of Nine Mile Road and cross to the main entrance of the hospital via the pedestrian bridge. Parking is without charge.

Information on meetings in other areas will be given by Nancy Lombardo, 540-4264.

FARMINGTON LaLECHE LEAGUE continues its series on the art of breastfeeding at 8 p.m. Wednesday, July 14, in the home of Wendy Breshgold, 22509 Lilac, Farmington.

The session is called "Baby Arrives: The Family and the Breastfed Baby," led by Pat Girbach.

Breshgold will take inquiries by calling her at 477-8885.
