

INSIDE ANGLES

CONGRATULATIONS to Dorothy Bennett who recently was named Michigan's 1982 Woman of Distinction at the state convention of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society at Mackinac Island. A teacher and counselor at Clarenceville High School, she has been affiliated with Kappa Gamma through the Beta Eta chapter since 1970. Through the years she has been responsible for initiating such things as a chapter library, members' responsibilities sheet, booklet of officers' responsibilities and chapter policies and procedures. She assisted in the founding of the Gamma Alpha chapter. She was a member of the Oakland Coordinating Council from 1978-82 and served as its president from 1980-82. During that time she initiated a policies and procedure handbook and started a scrapbook and history.

IT'S OFF TO THE wild blue yonder for Todd Snively who will be entering the U. S. Air Force Academy this month. Snively, along with the rest of the class of 1985, will begin training with a six weeks of intensive basic cadet training in Colorado before beginning classes in August. Before going to Colorado, Snively and the other cadet appointees from eastern Michigan are meeting at Brig. General William Constantine in a greeting at Lawrence Institute of Technology.

ALGIS ZAPARACKAS of Farmington Hills, has won another appointment to the Michigan Higher Education Assistance Authority by Gov. William Milliken. He was first appointed in 1978. A product design engineer for Ford Motor Co., he is chairman of the Foreign Language Radio Program.

Directors Association, producer and director of Lithuanian Melodies Radio Hour WMBZ and president of the Lithuanian Chamber of Commerce of Detroit.

MERYL FENTON M.D., a clinical assistant professor of medicine at Wayne State University has been elected president of the Michigan chapter of the American College of Chest Physicians for a two-year term. He recently was honored by the Michigan State Medical Society and Wayne State with a "50-Year Award" for his service to medicine. THE JUNIOR DIVISION of the Jewish Welfare Federation is sponsoring an open bowling party on July 17 at Ark Lanes West in Southfield. Activities begin at 8 p.m. Junior Division is a Jewish organization open to persons of post-college age through early 30s. Activities focus on community service, education and fund raising.

SENIOR CITIZENS will have a change to register for a senior citizen discount card at the Detroit Baptist Manor, 20245 Thirteen Mile, on July 7, between 1-3 p.m. Oakland County senior citizens who are 60 years and older will be given an identification card free of charge, to receive a discount from participating merchants. The identification card is laminated to include a picture of the senior, signature, address, birthdate, social security number and the official county seal. Discount directories advertising the participating merchants honoring senior citizen identification cards are available at each of the camera site for 65 cents. The identification cards will enable seniors to take advantage of discounts offered by local merchants ranging from four to 50 percent. Discounts are offered on a variety of items such as automobile parts, rustproofing, hair care, prescription drugs and eyeglasses. Persons who wish to order the directory by mail should send a check for $1.20 to Oakland-Livingston Human Service Agency, 196 Oakland Avenue, Pontiac 48058. Further information may be obtained by calling the toll free number of 1-800-482-9250.

RUMOR HAS IT that besides being his birthday on July 6, state Rep. Sandy Brotherton will be spending the day on jury duty. Some folks have all the luck.

ST. MARY COLLEGE of Orchard Lake is offering interested persons, both young and old, a chance to earn college credit for what they have learned outside the classroom through the College Level Examination Program (CLEP). The program is a national system of awarding college credit by examination. It is based on the concept that an individual should receive college credit for what he knows, irrespective of where he learned it. CLEP tests are administered every third Saturday of the month at St. Mary's College. For more information or to make an appointment call 682-1885 or write to the College Admissions Office, St. Mary's College, Orchard Lake 48063. The college is located at Commerce and Orchard Lake Roads.
