

Y director resigns post

YMCA Executive Director Gary L. Unruh will be leaving the Farmington YMCA. He will become vice president of marketing, membership and branch operations for the Metropolitan Detroit YMCA.

He will be succeeded by Kevin Bush who has been the assistant executive for two years.

Unruh came to Farmington 10 years ago when the local branch was located at Grand River and Drake Road. The YMCA offices were housed in a nine-room farmhouse that had been loaned to the Y by Norm Lawton. In 1972, under the leadership of Robert Chesley, a 1,200 square-foot A-frame was constructed on 12 acres of land at Farmington and 12 Mile roads. Relying on community facilities, the Y continued to expand its services and programs.

Unruh, with the help of Allan Kenner, John Clappison and Floyd Cairns, began planning for a full-service facility with 100 doors and 10,000 square feet of space. The facility is one of the most comprehensive in the state with a 25-meter pool, double gymnasium, running track, courts, weight room and health center.

During the past 10 years, the membership has grown from 1,700 to 9,000 members. The program offerings have increased from 45 to more than 200 every seven weeks.
