The bride wore a gown of ivory fashioned Victorian style while she carried roses and lily of the valley. She was attended by Valerie Jennings, Jean VanHemel and Jean Heideimeyer.

Ronald Petroff served as his brother's best man with groomsmen Kip Petroff and Steven DeMarco.

The bride and groom are both graduates of Eastern Michigan University. The couple received guests in Dearborn's Holiday Inn before leaving for Denver, Colo. where they will make their home.

Language disabilities helped in 2-day workshop

Adventure Foundation sponsors a two-day workshop on the "Orton-Gillingham" teaching technique for children with specific language disabilities.

Arlene Sondag, an expert in the teaching technique, will conduct the workshop 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday, Aug. 31-Sept. 1 in The Adventure School, 1775 Melton Street, Birmingham. Registration is $40.

A board member of the Orton Dyslexia Society, Sondag is a reading therapist at the St. Paul Academy Summit School in St. Paul, Minn. She has conducted workshops using this method of teaching throughout the country.

In 1981 she received a special recognition award from the Upper Midwest Branch of the Orton Dyslexia Society.

Registration information will be given by calling Adventure School, 642-1150.
