HOWARD L. DELL

For State Representative
District 24 — Republican

You will be challenged for your vote in the primary election in the 24th District. Only one candidate from each political party will emerge as a winner. Howard L. Dell, Republican, West Bloomfield, should be considered a successful candidate if true qualifications are set high on the voter's choice in the 24th District.

- He has shown integrity and efficiency in public life.
- He has made an effort to remove barriers based on color, ethnic background or sex.
- He has pursued interests and experience in education at all levels. Michigan needs his devoted and committed attitudes for the best in education in the 1990s.
- He has served the social needs of people and will support proper legislation concerning just and worthy issues.
- He has inspired a safeguard for all wage earners and retired persons living on fixed incomes from the effects of inflation.
- He has promoted ideas for positive development for the State of Michigan.

The 24th District has the opportunity to support a candidate who can propose sound and practical programs in this time of economic crisis in the State of Michigan.

Say "yes" to a capable and motivated candidate—HOWARD L. DELL.

He has prepared well for the office he seeks in the House of Representatives.

He will serve diligently!
He will be informed!
He will seek your assistance!
He will listen and react to individual needs!
He will be there in Lansing working for you and the entire State of Michigan.
