

Three in a tree

Three young men from Boy Scout Troop 389 which meets at Nardin Park Methodist Church were selected to serve as junior staff members at a Boy Scout Camp near Clare. The three, Chris Farley (left), David Burton and Brian Green instructed younger, inexperienced Scouts during their stay at Lost Lake camp. During the three counselor's stay at the camp, Lost Lake underwent national inspection and received an "A" rating, the best in Michigan.

Keego murder trial delayed

The extradition of first-degree murder suspect Ba Van Nguyen could possibly be delayed three to four months, according to Keego Harbor Police Chief William Holloway.

Nguyen is wanted in the June 10 shooting deaths of two Vietnamese women living in Keego Harbor.

He was arrested June 13, in Macon, Ga., by the Bibb County Sheriff's Department, when a deputy sheriff stopped to investigate a car parked on the side of the road with its emergency flashers on. A routine computer license check revealed the driver was wanted in connection with the Keego Harbor murder investigation.

"They are having an extradition hearing on the 17th of August in Georgia," Holloway said. "Apparently this guy (Nguyen) is fighting extradition. He has his right to judicial process, and if he loses the extradition hearing, he can appeal the decision, and it may be three or four months before we get him back to Michigan."

"The extradition warrants have been signed by the governor of Michigan and the governor of Georgia. Sooner or later, I have a hunch he'll be back here. I just wish it was sooner, because we would like to get this matter taken care of," Holloway added.

NGUYEN was named in the warrants for the murders of Man Le Thin Nguyen, 30, (no relation to the suspect) and Mai Ngo, 40.

Sen Nguyen, husband of one of the slain women who works at the Farmington Bakery, reportedly had befriended the suspect and taken him into his Keego Harbor trailer to help him, a common custom in the Indochinese refugee community. Ngo was also a guest of the family.

When Nguyen was arrested in Georgia, he told authorities he attempted suicide June 10. Arresting authorities discovered an injury to the right side of his head he said was a self-inflicted gunshot wound. Bibb County Sheriff Ray Wilkes said the injury appeared to be a graze wound.

The injury was not serious, as Nguyen was treated at a hospital before being transported to the Bibb County Jail, where he is being held awaiting the extradition process.

Ba Van Nguyen faces charges of two counts of murder, each carrying a life sentence, and one felony firearm count that carries a two-year mandatory prison term upon conviction of one or both of the murder charges.

Because you care...

In a time of crisis, the family instinctively turns to the church and to friends, and to those institutions that most nearly reflect their own feelings.

The family that pauses to mark the passing of one of their own is demonstrating one of our culture's noblest traditions.

It is called "Caring"—the reflection of a sincere desire to honor the memory of a loved one, and to offer help to those who live on. In this manner family and friends show that they care for one another.

And, in a like manner, the staff at McCabe seeks to provide a service that is first and foremost an exercise in caring. It governs the way we handle every detail. Because you care, we care.
